A stylized graphic of a trumpet, composed of four vertical, rounded rectangular bars of varying heights and widths, arranged to suggest the main body and valves of the instrument. The bars are light gray with a subtle gradient and a soft shadow effect.

Divine Economy

According to current media reports, and the varied pictures that seem to confront us of impoverished living, we are now facing bad times—economically. Perhaps even these words may seem to make light of the horrendous ebb of the world’s economic tide. Reader, perhaps you do not need the corroboration of media reports to announce the message your empty pockets and sagging bank accounts are heralding on a daily basis. According to global and perhaps personal reports, things look grim. What can you do to escape the un-welcome arrival of THE RECESSION?

Ask yourself the question again: “What is it I can do to escape the recession?” Maybe now you can perceive the power and grand sweep of Jesus’ words when he spoke of the great necessity and even the Divine commission to live by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God. Consider this. Have you been told, through Divine Revelation, Illumination or Spiritual Insight that these are indeed “bad times?” Who told you? Who, or what did you believe? And, most important, why did you seem to believe the report?

Compelling appearances told you. Pictures—graphic reports backed by dark and dismal verbal reports delivered by immaculately coiffed newscasters—told you that times are bad. And seemingly you believed them. Sometimes it is amazing how beautifully doom and gloom are packaged. Can you see, more clearly, why Jesus spoke of not judging by appearances? The eye is so easily fooled. At the checkout counter of most grocery stores (in the United States) you can actually pay for little booklets of optical illusions. These have been carefully designed to show you just how easily the eyes can be fooled. But reader please do not bother to purchase one of these bagatelles of entertainment. They don’t offer a real challenge; for in the back of these little publications you are shown just how easily the eye is tricked. Why spend seventy-five cents for these pamphlets of optical illusions when you can fritter away all of your so-called “hard earned dollars” being taken in and tricked by optical illusions of recession, economic depression, scarcity, and insufficiency. It’s a wonderful pastime viewing these pictures that suggest God Substance is no longer infinite, boundless and immeasurable Wealth. The fun of it is that there are no answers to the puzzling riddle of this optical illusion. No resolution can be found in the back of some printed publication. Even those who, by some genetic “fluke,” easily scale the peaks of intelligence quotient tests cannot offer a sure and certain formula of deliverance. Why not?

The answer is simple. Imagine a snowy winter’s day. As the minutes pass, the snowfall grows heavier and heavier. You are in the midst of this wonderful dance of nature, observing it through pink-tinted glasses. The snow clouds take on a rosy hue; the flakes appear as small, pink cotton flakes. Reader, as long as you view the snowfall through tinted lenses, how many hours of experimentation, research, analysis, plotting, saving, balancing, etc. would it take to change the snow flakes from pink to white?

Beloved Being of Infinite Perfection, what scheme would really work to produce wealth, abundance and prosperity in your affairs as long as you seem to insist on viewing the Inexhaustible Substance of the Universe through the bifocals of fluctuation, change, mutability; through the thieving eye of lack, limitation and restriction? None! The changeless Presence of the Infinity of God, even visibly evidenced this very moment, cannot progress from a state and stage it has never regressed to. Furthermore, you cannot really be duped. Right now, do you identify yourself as the hypnotized one, the deluded one, or the believer in optical illusions? “As a man thinketh in his heart so is he (so he appears).”

There can be no solution to that which has no factual existence, and what follows is not a formula, nor a solution. From our Holy Bible we read, “Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord (ever operative Spiritual Law).” Therefore STOP the frantic human effort to overcome this phantasmagoric picture of limited Substance. This picture of limitation is not really a presence nor is it really a power, and all of your efforts to outwit or overcome this mirage only serve to make it appear more genuine. If, instead, you would be still-in mind and body-in Silent Prayer with no desire, whatsoever, but to experience that which IS, you would perceive the insanity and inanity of these fictitious pictures. This is guaranteed. Continuing this practice of stillness, you will, know that I AM (YOU ARE) the very Presence of God, a presence that knows Infinite Abundance, Infinite Substance, Infinite Power to be the ONLY PRESENCE EVER PRESENT. You will realize how and why it is absolutely impossible for you, or anyone else, to experience any form of lack at all. The sun would fail to shine before you could ever know lack and limitation.

Dear reader, I want you to know that it is natural and normal for you to experience the I AM Presence. Do not labor or strain to be that which you already are. Be still and simply allow the Light you are to BE, and to perceive on Its terms that which IS. This practice is undeniably practical. Revelation and true Insight illumine this world that appears so dark and dismal and reveals that here and now is the Finished Kingdom of Boundless sufficiency.

No, I am not suggesting that instantaneously you will find yourself with Oprah Winfreyish fame and fortune, neither am I discounting it as a possibility (How about you?). I am implying that you simply cannot find yourself in the same financial arena as when you were seemingly believing the lie of lack and limitation. However, I urge you to be still without the temptation of trying to use stillness as a prosperity formula. And beloved, be open all the way to BE the I AM that you factually are. Contemplate the truths in this chapter, and you are guaranteed to experience countless benefits.

*“Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”
(Philippians 3:13-14)*
