CHAPTER 1

ISIS: Mother of Creation

Lift the Veil of your True Self—You will be Amazed

When I began writing Code of the King: A Deadly Search for Ancient Wisdom, the gods and goddesses of ancient Egypt existed in my mind as purely mythological beings. They had no relevance beyond what I considered their psychological qualities—Ptah as the God of the arts, Hathor as the Goddess of music and sex, Osiris as the God of Rebirth and Resurrection. Their images could be used as amulets for the activation of a particular attribute a client desired. In my academic training they had no base of reality.

Until a gifted psychic named Rosemerrie Christie entered my life. When she recommended I “talk to them,” the thought never occurred to me that they could be something other than fictional characters. However, I had just begun to learn that my fictional characters speak loud and clear. My interest in the alternate history of ancient Egypt began as a child when I saw a picture of a pyramid and wanted to know more about its true purpose. Even then, I knew it was not a tomb. It fascinated me, these ancient pharaohs with their golden chariots and the myriad gods and goddesses.

I learned the traditional history, i.e. the ancient Egyptians called the Center of the Galaxy: Isis, the Great Mother of Creation. And the non-traditional: On December 21, 2012, the earth will align with the sun and the Galactic Center, bringing the Great Mother back into alignment with the earth. Her loving influence is being felt planet-wide and will no doubt increase in energy up to and beyond 2012 when we will return to full consciousness.

The Mayans call this date the end of their calendar. The Hopi call it the Great Purification. The Kabbalists call it the Path of Return, and the Bible calls it Armageddon and Ascension. The rest of us call it the Shift in Consciousness.

After the fall of Atlantis, which occurred around 10,000 BC, humanity reverted to cave-man existence due to the trauma experienced world-wide, which lasted approximately 2,000 years. The dark Atlanteans used their scientific knowledge to reduce the DNA, which caused massive fear in humans and a reduced lifespan.

GUIDE TIP: Humans can consciously increase their DNA by refusing to allow fear and other negative emotions into their lives. In the Golden Age fear is nonexistent. Cultivate courage and assertiveness by standing up for yourself and demanding your Rights.

Around 8,000 BC humans were on the verge of another upward cycle in their evolvment. When Isis and Osiris decided to incarnate as the first king and queen of Egypt, they brought their light and wisdom back to the beings who would record the beginnings on tablets of stone and walls of granite. They reigned with love and compassion, bringing true balance of the male and female energies into the land.

They made a pact on Sirius before they took human bodies that Osiris would allow himself to be sacrificed for the greater good of the country. His brother Set, jealous and resentful of the golden couple, would kill the king, cut his body into fourteen pieces, and scatter them along the banks of the Nile. Isis found all the pieces and with her magic put him back together. Wherever she found a piece she built a temple.

The population of earth had been so traumatized by the destruction of Atlantis that their broken spirits were seeking again the light that had predominated on Atlantis for so long. When the negative influences took over the island by trickery, black magic, and force, some made it out to the Americas and to Egypt before the floods and earthquakes came and plunged the island into the sea.

JERI CASTRONOVA

Isis began her mystery schools for those she deemed ready for training in what became known as “magic.” In reality, what she taught was the natural state of humans to know the principles of nature and the multi-dimensional world that exists within the 3rd dimensional planet. Her purpose was to bring the true teachings of consciousness back to the people.

The hieroglyph for the Goddess of Magic, Isis, was the image of a throne. She was depicted on most tomb and temple walls kneeling on the symbol for gold, which represented her powerful magic in maintaining the wealth of the nation.

She is credited with teaching the priests at her cult center in Philae how to transmute base metals into gold. For this reason, she assured the pharaohs an unending supply of the precious metal for statues, jewelry, and temples. She also taught the priests how to heal the physical body, using gold and all forms of white magic, which was actually utilizing the laws of nature in a vibratory state of higher consciousness.

She gave them copper and zinc wands, according to the Golden Mean, with crystals on top. They balanced the chakras—holding copper in the right hand, zinc in the left. This clears out negative energy. These are still in the pyramid to activate it. Each pharaoh would hold the wands before they entered the pyramid. They were charged the first time they were held and each time would only need to be picked up to regain the charge.

Isis taught them how to raise their frequencies in order to heal the people and the planet, and balance the natural order of water, earth, elements of food production and living in harmony with Gaia. She is assisting us now to complete what she and Osiris didn't finish in their lifetimes:

GUIDE TIP: We are raising the vibration of ourselves and the planet in order to repel the dark ones and to shift our consciousness into a planetary fifth dimension and a new Golden Age.

Their high civilization remained in the memories of its people and so Isis began her training both psychologically and spiritually of those who were ready. The generators of energy that would propel the culture forward as it had been in Atlantis enabled the predynastic land to build magnificent structures and to increase agricultural production for a growing population.

These generators, which we know today as pyramids, were based on the pyramids in Atlantis, which contained huge crystals that could be directed toward various positions around the globe, under the seas, and into the cosmos.

JERI CASTRONOVA

As humans began to connect once again to their spirits and follow the teachings of their king and queen, a huge blight infiltrated their world. Dark beings from other planets who wanted to control the humans for their own purposes swept over the land, instilling fear and resentment. They came in such swarms that Isis and Osiris could not defend the people from their onslaught.

Isis called on the Hathors, who answered her call, and arrived on earth to help the people. They found, however, there were too many of the negative extraterrestrials. They bombarded Isis and the Hathors, and during the next two millennia were able to enslave the people with promises of survival needs in exchange for their adulation. They demonstrated their power with advanced technology and negative programming that led to the belief of powerlessness.

Many gods and goddesses were created later to strengthen the pantheon to repel the ETs in the hopes of providing people with all sorts of gods for many purposes—Ptah, god of artists, Anubis, god of mummification, Sekhmet, lion goddess of female power, destruction and creation. Isis became the Goddess of Magic, Osiris the God of the Underworld, their son, Horus the God of Pharaohs, and Thoth the God of Wisdom.

THE GODDESS AND THE GAME BOARD

Until the pharaoh, Akhenaton, brought the one True God back into religion. Threatened by this attempt to usurp their control over the people, the dark priests assassinated him, assuring his successor would return to the pantheon of gods and goddesses.

Once I considered the idea that the goddesses and gods were “real,” and that I could actually speak to Isis myself, I had the following dream:

In the dream Isis appeared and wanted to show me her wedding. She said it was a union, not a wedding, to Osiris. It was intended to be the prototype joining together in physicality of two humans. The people gathered at the sacred hill to watch their first king and queen become One. Their future son, Horus, stood next to them as they spoke their words of love and respect for each other and all beings.

Many of the gods and goddesses of ancient Egypt attended. They were all in gleaming garments. Isis was resplendent in a shimmering gown of pure gold light, with touches of flaming red. Osiris gleamed in his beautiful cobalt blue with flashes of gold. They wore no crowns, only the beams of light that streaked from their heads.

When I told Rosemerrie about the dream, she channeled the following from Isis:

JERI CASTRONOVA

The beauty of the ceremony was for your appreciation of beauty. The emphasis on union is that the adage of two individuals becoming one is a truth. When bodily fluids are exchanged, the molecular union that comes aligns both parties in the personification of a new entity. This was an understanding that is desired for you to see and know.

In a true union the Ka of each party is represented as a love bird and the Ka or spirit of each perform a union that is an exalted understanding. A union is a true blessing. The people gathered around to more than simply witness. They participated with their spirits, giving and receiving the blessings of the community.

It also speaks to you about this lifetime in that you have not experienced this kind of union. However, there has been a desire for this kind of union and you should understand that the desire is from an experience of the past. And your partner is not on the planet at this time. (note: I knew this being. He appeared during the writing of Book 2: Quest for the Emerald Tablets, and requested the role of Demetrius, who sacrificed his life for Sydney. Then as now, he is drop-dead gorgeous!)

You experienced union with this entity that was profound and that encompassed your highest ideal and emotions. And with one spear thrust all of that was destroyed. Because of your position. Nothing could replace the grace, the poet, the laughter or the love of this being. In some regard you have never allowed true exaltation of union since that lifetime. There have been lifetimes where you have sought to blot out this memory, when you disbelieved in a greater good or a god, or in the possibility of the ideal.

In our talks, you have learned to remember and this union will come again. He has not been far away. You allow the joy in your dreams when he visits.

All symbols come from the Ka—the spirit. The Kas connect above the heads. It's demonstration is the bird. And was the beginning of the myths. After that the people became smaller.

It is also recommended that you remember the color tones that were prevalent with regard to the ceremony and reproduce these color tones for meditation purposes. They weren't three dimensional colors. Hence the need to meditate on it.

Approach the colors from tiny increments. It is a fun exercise. And will give you another understanding of the relationship between colors. All the colors at the ceremony had a shimmering glow. Unification within the self is to be desired also. And I *offer you a drum roll--it is in reference to your book.

(note: Book 1, Code of the King)*

The truth of what she said affected me deeply. Among all her gifts and treasures, the sustaining love and encouragement of Isis had gotten me through many timelines. My friend, Rosemerrie, brought me into the reality of the "unseen" many times through her inspired words and unparalleled channelings of the Ascended Masters. And, now I channel Isis myself.

I included the reading at Isis' recommendation, even though it felt too personal to me that it be brought in. She said it is a message of hope to all those who feel their Twin Flame doesn't exist. It was indeed a reading of hope for me. Demetrius/David appeared during the writing of the next book, and he was so irresistible, I had to bring him into the story!

A Message from Isis

In the mystery schools, each initiate learned the clearing techniques which enabled them to raise their vibration and maintain it daily. All those trained in these methods used them for the good of the nation and each individual's evolvment. Once learned and perfected, the initiates went out into the communities and taught the people how to use it in their work and personal lives.

THE GODDESS AND THE GAME BOARD

They began with clearing the area of work and home. This is a new version of the powerful ancient technique.

Use concentric circles. Visualize yourself in the center as you feel light from the Great Central Sun enter the top of your head and move downward into the center of the earth. Then extend the light outward from your heart, as a stone is thrown in water and concentric circles ripple outward. Begin with your home. Say out loud:

GUIDE TIP: I COMMAND ALL NEGATIVE EXTRATERRESTRIALS, TERRESTRIALS, AND ALL DARK ENERGIES BE GONE FROM MY AREA OF INFLUENCE NOW AND FOREVER. I AM SAFE AND PROTECTED. THE LIGHT FROM ME, THE ARCHANGELS AND ASCENDED MASTERS CLEARS AND PURIFIES THE LAND, SEA AND AIR. FROM NOW ON WHEREVER I GO I PROJECT LIGHT AND LOVE. SO BE IT.

As you do this every day, you will notice you are less afraid, less doubtful, and more courageous. You are dealing directly with the power of intent to create who you are, and who you are is a being that is fully conscious and totally awake.

You know who you are. You know who you were. You know who you will be.

JERI CASTRONOVA

You can define yourself as a divine being with no hesitation. You can believe that you are part of the True God. You know what you came here to do and you know without a doubt that you will do it. How you know all this is no longer a mystery. You just know.

You have overcome great obstacles that have brought you to this point in your many existences. You have created a being of which the True God is indeed proud and delighted to behold.

When the wicked are finally removed from the planet, you will hear a mighty cheer from the beings who have come here to aid in your ascension. It grows near that this event will definitely happen and you can rejoice in your part through your words of power that have held the intent for the galactians to do what they came to do. They are meticulous in their process of removing all impediments to the events that approach.

None of the dark must be left that could possibly get their hands on the St. Germaine funds that will soon go out to those who will receive them.

Once you have your money and all debts forgiven, you will find yourself with a new set of problems, or issues, nothing like being without money. Rather, how to now spend your time in the

Becoming a master of your life is one of the things money will teach you, for you will no longer have annoying or intrusive thoughts about paying bills or meeting debt deadlines, and you will see just how much those thoughts have interfered with your spiritual growth.

Your freedom is assured as your Divine Birthright.
