

Love Songs

Mario Spassov

LOVE SONGS is a collection of poems written over a period of thirty years. It continues a long and proud tradition of medieval troubadours, renaissance bards, and romantic poets. The book is a humble contribution to the delightful world of lyric poetry.

EXHIBITION

There was an exhibition inside the art museum.

*Amazing exhibition, spectacular exhibition,
unique exhibition!*

*Ancient artifacts,
gorgeous display,
worldwide importance!*

I was looking at you.

*We went to the exhibition,
we went there together.*

*There were many people,
there were thousands of folks.
It was a huge crowd!*

*We walked through the mass,
we roamed through the halls,
we wandered around.*

I was gazing at you.

*I missed the eternal,
I missed the grandeur,
I missed the splendor.
I did not see the frescos,
nor the sculptures and the coffins,
nor the mummies and the jars.
I did not see the history,
I did not see the art.*

I saw only you.
