First Edition

Dedication

The Scribal Watchman is dedicated first and foremost to Yahweh who gifts me with the strength and ability to write. May my life be found pleasing in Your sight, O Lord!

Randy C. Taylor, my husband, my greatest support and best friend.

Herbert M. Powell, my dad. You are not forgotten. Yes, I will, “Keep the faith” and move forward in my divine commission as Yahweh’s Scribal Watchman... No matter what!

Acknowledgements

A special thank you to my sister, Pamela. You are a sweetheart. I am so blessed to have you in my life. My beautiful mother, Patricia, I bless God for you. Your strength, perseverance, and steadfast love are what keep me going. You gave us your best, now it's my turn to make you proud. And a big thanks to my editors, Latonya Mouzon and Robyn Conley for helping me work through this manuscript.

Chapter 1 – Introduction

Incline your ear, and come to Me. Hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you--the sure mercies of David – Isaiah 55:3.

America and her surrounding nations have entered the season of what I call the inclined ear. The inclined ear season is a time of open wisdom where humankind is given the opportunity to hear and live! But how can one hear unless one listens? This is where the Scribal Watchman enters.

The Scribal Watchman is a resource guide birthed in prayer. I fully understand and appreciate the beauty and wisdom of moving at the appropriate time. Time is the producer of a solid comprehension of the role and responsibility to which one is called. I am called to serve as a scribal watchman and if you are reading this resource, God is tugging at your heart to enter as one of His scribes.

Now is the time to release the Scribal Watchman. The Scribal Watchman interconnects with the inclined ear season to activate the ears of the individual called to watch and record. It is a time to yield, hear, and passionately tune in to God's voice. It is a time to speak the heart of Father to the nation(s) and warn of pending judgment before it happens (Amos 3:7). The inclined ear is how God's people can come under His protection to prepare for the days of trouble ahead.

Without question there is a warfare that comes with writing and releasing prophetic words. The more skilled one becomes the greater the war. What should have taken months has taken years, but in spite of the lapse I have come to respect the power of time. According to Ecclesiastes 3:1, "To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven." I recognize this and know that now is the season for the release of the Scribal Watchman. There is an open heaven, the same open heaven that came to me in the form of a dream.

During the month of September 2013 I dreamed of a royal blue pen with gold trim. The pen extended downward from heaven to earth. It represented a royal scribal invitation from heaven. The pen confirmed a decree of how the heavens are open and this is the divine opportunity to complete what I had started many years prior.

Throughout this resource the term “Scribal Watchman” represents men, women, young, or mature in age who are called by God to transcribe words of the LORD to the nation(s) or to a particular sphere of influence. The Scribal Watchman is a practical guidebook and training manual on how to hear God in a more profound way. The body of Christ must know the sound of His voice over all other voices. The nations are thirsty and in need of hearing God’s voice during these end times! If you are reading this resource, your sphere of influence is in need of a prophetic word from the LORD. Scribal watchmen, who are commissioned to watch and warn the nations of things to come, can effectively do so by recognizing His voice and transcribing His message in a tangible, written format for others to hear and notice. Notably, there is the use of the term guidebook, resource guide, and training manual. This is not to confuse the reader but to allow him or her to utilize this book according to how he or she sees fit.

Why another book on hearing God? This book is more than just a how-to publication. There are numerous books on hearing God, but few, if any, focus on hearing God from the perspective of how He has designed YOU to learn. This training manual attempts to capture and connect the individual’s personal learning style to how God speaks to him or her using that style. This is a resource guide for the modern day writing prophet, intercessor, watchman, or person who writes prophetically. Inside the pages of The Scribal Watchman is a compilation of personal stories, practical tips, and biblical insights to guide the reader on a path purposed to sharpen and strengthen the ear to hear what the Spirit of the Lord is saying in this hour. What makes the role of a Scribal Watchman distinct is the commission to transpose God’s word through use of the prophetic pen in a way that unites others to pray. The scribal watchman has a prophetic element that is uniquely different from the individual who studies, observes, watches or writes as an occupation or hobby. Scribal watchmen are assigned to war with a prophetic pen that stems from hearing and recording what God speaks. The scribal watchman is more than a literary ministry or prophetic writing group. The scribal watchman is a scribal force that moves with prophetic precision, biblical truths, and spiritual insight.

If this bears witness to your spirit, welcome to the world of the scribal watchman. As you hear, watch, and record Father's voice allow Holy Spirit to move through you in a way that reflectively connects with similar experiences in your life. God is still speaking so arise and shine, scribal watchman! Take out your prophetic pen, notebook and/or computer and let's press in to what the Spirit of the Lord is saying in this hour to the nations!
