

How SuperGirl
Rainbow
Made
Everything
Colorful
Again

Illustrated by
Natalie Totire

Written by Britney Pieta

A young girl, rejected at birth, originally named "Rain," became "SuperGirl Rainbow" when she discovered that her gift of magical tears could make everything colorful around her. Rejected by her former town, she longed to find a place to call home. However, she learned that her life's purpose is bigger than her past and a place that would welcome the use of her gift may be more within her reach than she had first thought.

Rain was born in the season of new birth, which was nothing else but what we all know as spring.

Her mother named her new baby girl “Rain,” because it was raining outside while she was giving birth when it had not been forecasted that day.

Her mother thought it was a sign from God for her that she shouldn’t ignore.
