The Spiritual Heart

Diane K. Chapin

Presenting basic spiritual principles in a manner and tone reminiscent of Edgar Cayce (who author Diane Chapin also channeled briefly), some quite basic church dogma is challenged. Examples: "Give up the notion that you are in some way less than you should be, for that brings about self impoverishment... impoverishment of the soul, the Spirit, and the heart." and "... you must understand that there is no evil, except in the self hypnosis of the worldly mind."

CHAPTER 8

ORIGINAL SIN

We have come to continue with our assistance, for, as has been outlined, our purpose is greater harmonization and this can most certainly be achieved through the ways and means that we have been providing.

There is an area of explanation, however, that will be provided, for it is not our purpose that confusion occur in any way. As has been said, the Law is OF God, but IS NOT God.

That is, the Law is a mathematical sequence, comprised of the careful balancing of energies of the Universe, set down for the orderly progression of all.

We say, do not revel in negative thinking. Do not take to yourself, in a personal way, the negativity which the worldly mind would imbue you with, for it is, indeed, merely that which could cause you some confusion.

You might say, "If one is harmonized with God, why is it needed to employ the Law?" That is, indeed correct, but few live in such a vibrational state as to, at all times, remain in total harmony.

The Law was provided to give man the opportunity of free will and choice. It is up to you, then. Those who can, indeed, should remain in upliftment. But without continuous forgiveness, cleansing of the mind and clarity of thought, word and deed, one is living in the Law, rather than in perfect harmonization.

As greater harmonization takes place, you will find that you naturally set aside the use of the Law. For disharmony only can occur as you step away from the compassionate intuitive insight of the Holy Breath itself.

Indeed, as the concept of our Divine Father was distorted as man sought to live in the mesmerism of survival of the fittest, man forced himself to live by the Law, rather than under the protection and peace of the higher vibrational state.

As you progress on the spiritual path and you enter into the presence of the Father, understand that you may set all desires and outmoded beliefs aside. But, as you do so, clearly know that man is full of desires and beliefs, that the emptying out process is most difficult and sometimes painful, and that many cannot bear up under that. Indeed, the mind often wishes to flail and thrash about unnecessarily.

It is extremely important to understand the nature and influence of desire in conjunction with the worldly mind, for it is that which brings about unwanted illness, horror, lack and poverty. In other words, those deeply held beliefs will be acted upon by the Law, for the Law is of an impersonal nature.

That IS NOT to say the Law is ignorant of your needs, but it IS to say that most consider themselves needy in areas in which they are not. They look to others, they compare, they judge, they do not forgive themselves and they do not uplift themselves through the necessary cleansing of mind and Spirit.

You must cleanse yourselves of false desires and beliefs and understand self, for self. The cleansing of self from false desires does not mean that life about you will not be experienced as happy and beautiful. In fact, it is quite the opposite, for those who live in harmonization find their life flows freely and smoothly without the difficulties others experience.

Cleanse yourself of the belief of original sin, and forgive yourself for that, for that is at the root of all poverty, lack and those conditions that are similar.

Illness comes from a similar notion. Once again, the notion that, "Into each life a little rain must fall," is fallacy, sheer nonsense and completely unnecessary.

Give up the notion that, as man stepped away from God, he forced himself out of plenty and into a desert of impoverishment and survival of the fittest. This was never true.

Once again, those who lived in power, and were greedy beyond the imaginations of most, forced men to huddle in the cold, believing that was done through Divine Action. That was never true.

Divine Action always rights itself, always brings forth the highest good and knows no other way. If universal principle is that of a raised vibrational level of harmony, peace and good... if that is true... how, then, could man be cast aside by a merciful God? That is impossible and was never done.

As man became out of attunement, as it were, it became simple to believe in whining and lamenting, that was man's way. The Law, then, was given for your protection and your use, but man became so steeped in sorrow that the ways and means were forgotten and, indeed, were not provided to the masses by those who used them for themselves.

Mastership is man's natural way. As you forgive yourself several times a week for the belief that you are in some way evil, and that you, therefore, deserve the imprisonment that impoverishment brings in the lives that most live, you will find far greater gifts easily flows forth.

For, as you attune yourself, as you forgive yourself, as you listen to your intuition and align yourself with your deeper wishes... those wishes which come through the creative, intuitive way... the Law will be automatically employed for the positive. There can be no other way.

But, as you employ the Law for lowly things, for worldly ways, you will find the way seems to boomerang upon you, coming back to you in a negative way. This, once again, occurs merely because you have stepped out of attunement with yourself.

The Law is infinite... that is, it does not know bounds or boundaries and does not act in a way that you may believe possible, for energy flows through the Universe in many vibrational states bringing, for all, that which is visible and invisible.

Step into the harmony of your personal color, the cleansing of your mind. Live as much as possible in the higher vibrational state. Listen to your intuitive nature with compassion and wisdom for yourself and others and know that the Law will bring you all that is needed... in great bounty.

The Law cannot be employed particularly well for greedy purposes, for that will only bring upon the employer a negative effect. Give up the notion that you are in some way less than you should be, for that brings about self impoverishment... impoverishment of the soul, the Spirit, and the heart.

That is not needed, for spiritual impoverishment reflects itself in many ways and this reflection is not necessarily to be viewed as Divine. The Father does not know of that mean little way to live; a circumscribed unhappy way. Such a way is a reflection of discord.

Let that greater energy supply come to you through the freely flowing channels of creativity and intuition, bringing all that you need, and more. In other words, let it bring you all that you need on both the inner and the outer planes.

For, as we have said, the human mind does not know what is really needed. As the inner needs are met, satisfied and thereby bringing about greater peace, so the outer will reflect the same, without difficulty.

Many forget that as food, shelter and other immediate needs must be met before man could move on to greater philosophical undertakings, so must the inner soul's needs be met before the life reflects greater perfection.

So, when you rave about what you need, listen to your heart tell you what is truly needed. That does not mean you must climb to a mountain top and await the coming of the Spirit to inform you of what is needed, because that takes place right where you stand, now.

One always begins ones' growth where one finds self, no matter where that is, and one looks to self's inner needs and listens to that; for you will find outer needs, if met before inner needs are, can ruin a life. That has been borne out many times on the human plane.

All that is without is meant for enjoyment and your use. But if the within is not satisfied, the without can be an unhappy scene.

Harmonize yourself, then. Harmonize yourself through forgiving yourself and understanding that original sin is only the creation of petty little men. Forgiveness is instant, but you must forgive yourself, you must forgive others and you must understand that there is no evil, except in the self hypnosis of the worldly mind.

Live, then, with your eyes open with clarity and understanding that you need not stoop over under the great burden that you are 'not good enough,' for you were created in the image of our Divine Father. That is, you were created as a spiritual entity, as an entity with grace expressing itself individually as God.

If that is true, how can you be full of sins you never committed? Turn away from the belief that man fell upon his knees through the eating of an apple, handed to him by one of the female gender. That was misconstrued and forced upon man through improper belief.

The Spiritual Heart

A merciful God provided the Law in the event that, should man step away from total harmony with God, protection would be provided and that, through the implementation of the Law, man could continue to live in far greater peace.

Instead, man forced upon himself the belief that he was evil and that he was forced upon this evilness by the female gender, turning himself aside at that very moment from the Holy Breath itself... from compassion, wisdom, creativity and from the impartation of Divine intuition.

That is at the root of all difficulties between male and female. Look upon that with a clearer eye and you will know, for yourself, that never existed, not in reality. But, as man accepted these beliefs, the negative execution of the Law took place and has gone on now for generations.

Some have found the way out through greater spiritual living, through turning away from negative thoughts and through greater understanding of the Law. But you will find few able to truly use the Law to its fullest. This, once again, reflects some little belief in terms of original sin.

Give up this notion. Once you do, you will find you have no need of the Law, for you will understand that there are no barriers between you and mastership. THAT is the door to the harmonization with our Divine Father.

Uplift yourself, then. Uplift yourself through the cleansing of the soul, and through understanding and forgiveness of self for your belief in original sin.

Harmonize yourself through your personal color, through the acknowledgment of our divine Father as the Creator and Giver of all.

Do your meditations and acknowledgments as outlined, and you will find, our friends, a great burden has been lifted from you, that your soul flies forth and that you live from the within.

As you do so, the without will be easily supplied.

We say, then, do these things with diligence and grace and let the peace that passes all understanding, which is clarity, our friends, come to you... clarity of intent and purpose, clarity of soul, a soul not muddied by resentments, little hurts and the deep belief that man can never be righted with God again.

We bless you, and we depart for now.
