

Misty Gee

Zoey is a free spirited, energetic girl who has been diagnosed with Alopecia Areata. Although she loses her long brown hair, she does not lose her sense of humor! She takes us through her experience with Alopecia Areata. Zoey worries that others won't play with her anymore because of her hair loss. Her best friend Jackson reassures her that no matter what she looks like, he will always stay true to their friendship.

I started to have bald spots all over my head. I thought I might be turning into a cheetah. Maybe I would be super fast! Then I could catch more daddy longlegs!

My mom said we should go see Doctor Wig. She told us that I wasn't turning into a cheetah, but I had something called Alopecia Areata. She gave us a big book that was all about Alopecia. My mom said that my body is attacking the hair on my head.

"My body is attacking my hair! That's not very nice!" I told her.

"Sometimes with treatment the hair will grow back," she said.
