To my mother, Beverly, who never forgets
that kids are people too.

- Love Always, Jill

To my parents, Merl and Norma,
who gave me my first drawing pencil
and the confidence and love to use it.

- Roger

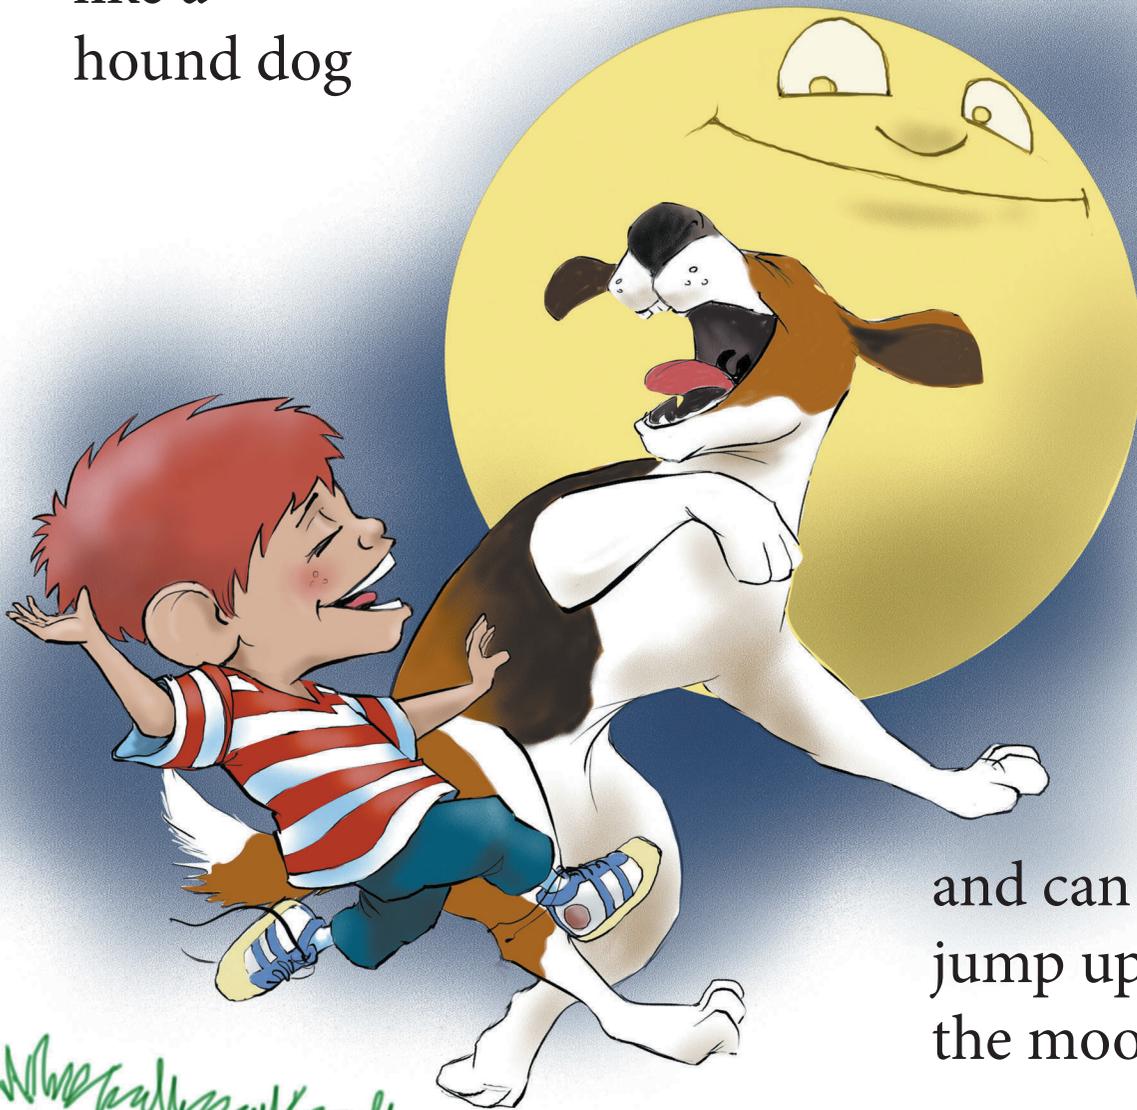

I get angry
like a tiger.

I get sad
like a baboon.

I get happy
like a hound dog

and can jump up to the moon!

Whispering Willows

I get angry like a tiger,
swing my paws and claws and shout!

I can make the growliest faces;
I can say mean things and pout!

But it doesn't feel good...

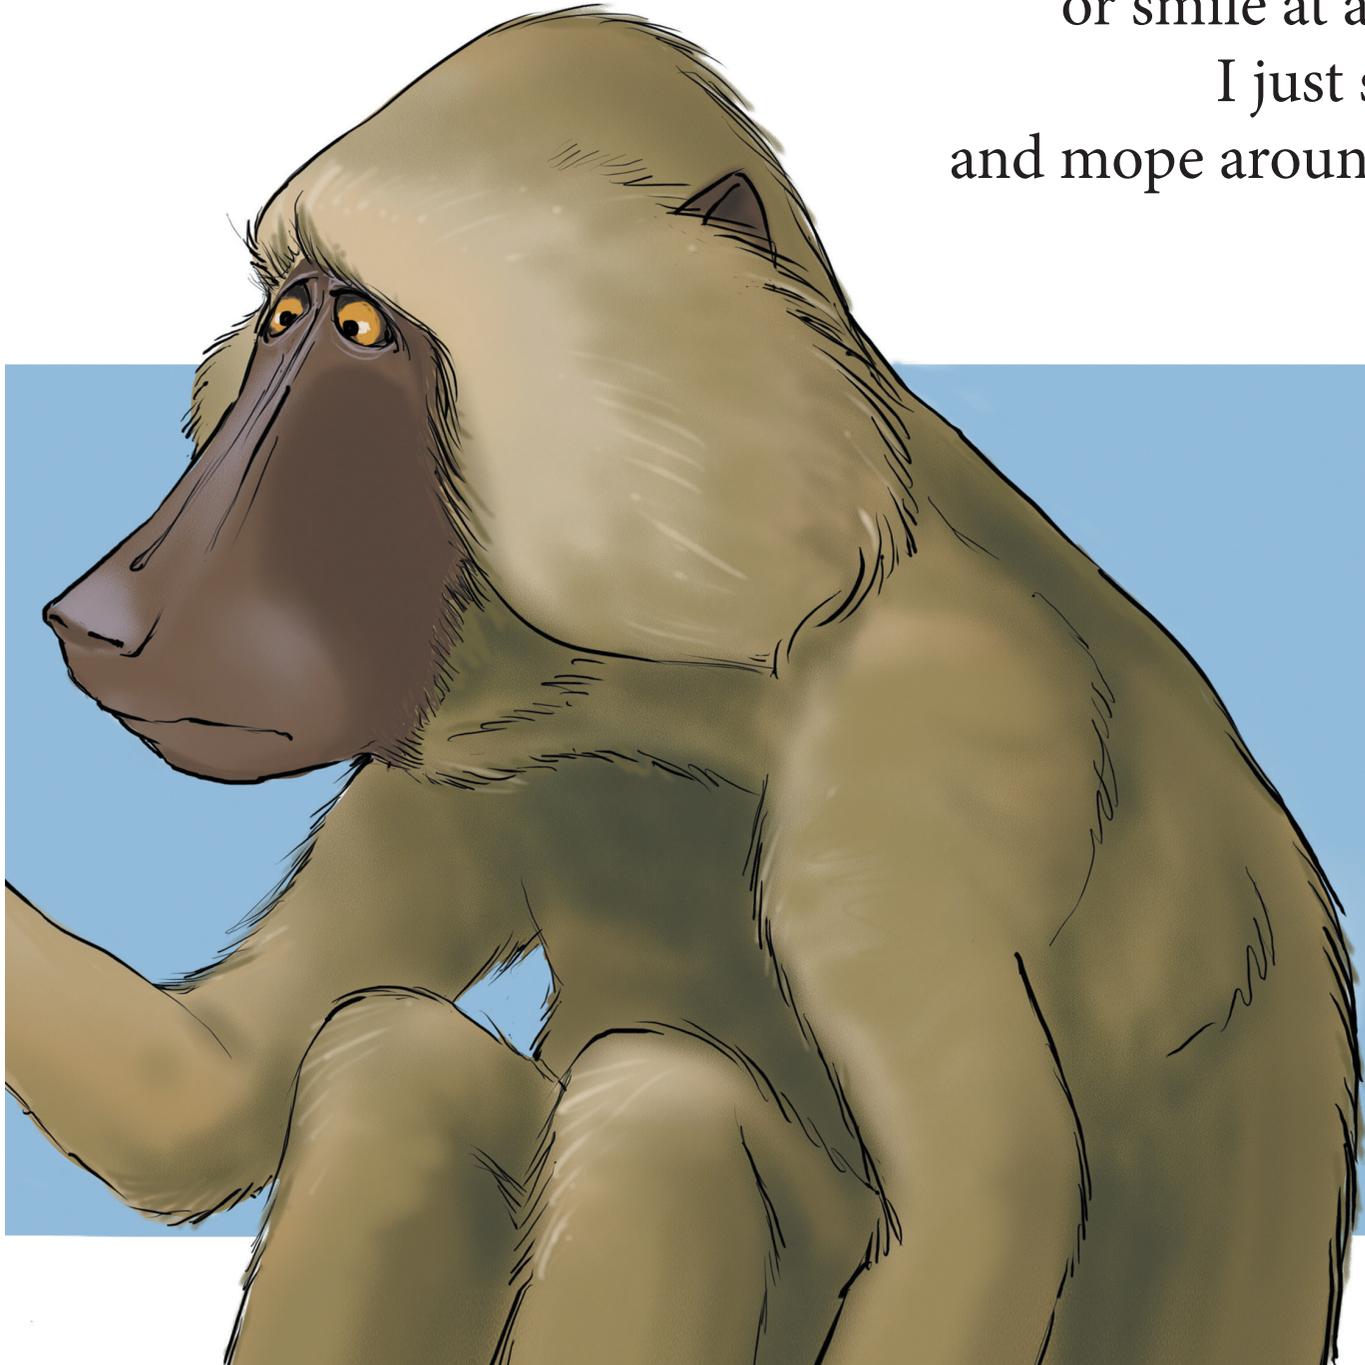

...to be angry,
like a tiger would.

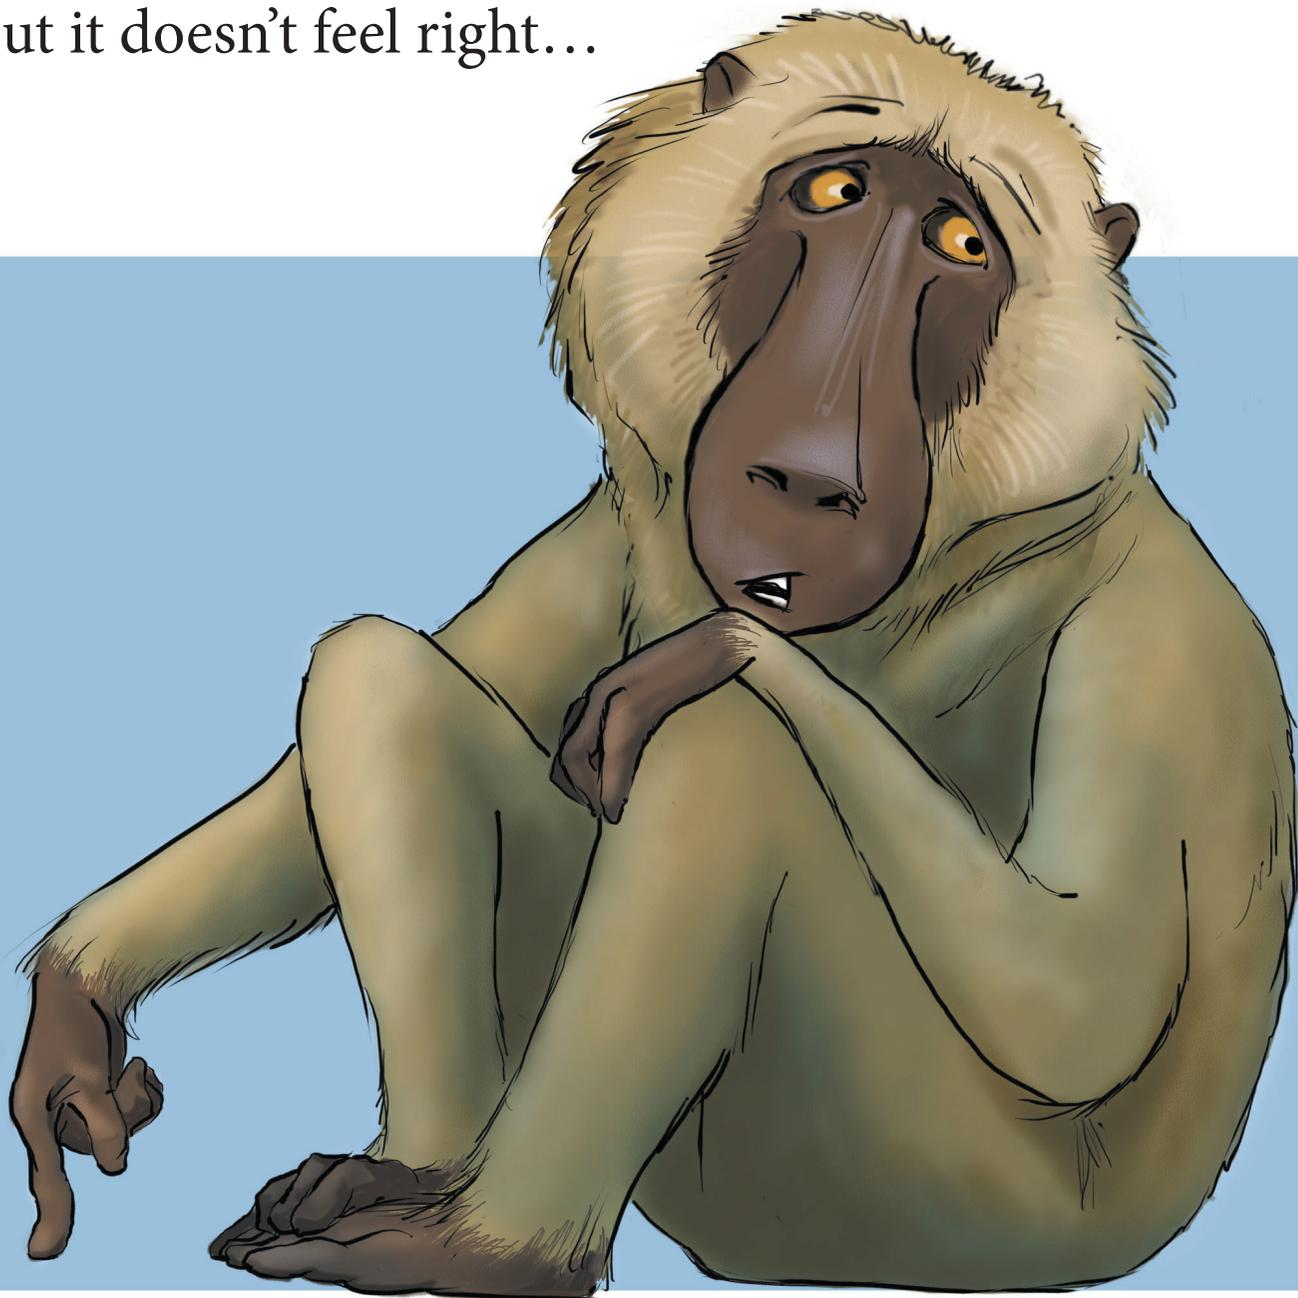

I get sad like a Baboon,
and I hang my head and frown.

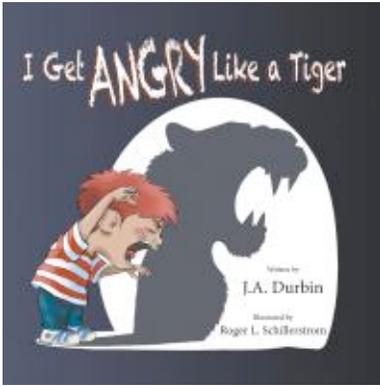

I don't play or laugh
or smile at all.
I just sit
and mope around.

But it doesn't feel right...
