

Should You Know?

Learn to read some mind-blowing words that can make a silly frog laugh and seven shoes sing!

GARY GAZLAY

“Should You Know?” provides the reader the opportunity to read new sight words multiple times. Research shows that the ability to read words by sight automatically is the key to skilled reading (Ehri, 1998). None of the sentences are intended to make any sense whatsoever, and hopefully will be enjoyable to read and make children laugh.

“Should You Know?” is the fifth in a series of five books for children that uses sight words from the following word lists:

Dolch Words: Pre-Primer, Primer, First, Second and Third

Dolch Word List: 95 Nouns

Fry’s Sight Words List: First Hundred, Second Hundred, Third

Hundred

Scott Foresman Sight Words: Kindergarten, First Grade

First Grade Spelling Word List

Second Grade Spelling Word List

Numbers: one, two, four, five, six, seven, and ten

Colors: Numbers: black, blue, brown, green, orange, purple, red, and white

The five book series introduces the reader to all the words contained on the word list. Word totals are shown at the end of each sentence, and word counts for the sentences increases throughout the book. Get your child started today with the easy to use word chart and word tracker.

ABOUT GARY

Gary Gazlay grew up in Pinellas County, Florida, and attended the University of South Florida. He taught music in Madison County, Florida, for over 42 years at the adult, high school, middle school and elementary levels. In May of 2016 he retired from the public school system.

Gary has been married to his wife Betty for over 35 years, and they are blessed to have two daughters, three grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

*Dedicated to our precious treasure and future,
“our children,” and to all the “Heroes” who have taught them, and will teach them.*

Special thanks and appreciation to my wife and best friend Betty. Also, to the incredible students and fellow educators in Madison County, Florida who profoundly impacted my life for over 40 years.

“Practice doesn’t make perfect. Perfect practice makes perfect.”
