JANUARY 7
ARCHITECT DIVINE

The stars and moon the night illumine...
The sun brings forth the day.
If the heavens spoke in rhyme,
This to us they'd say:

“Our order is no accident—
What fools some mortals be—
It was no chance cosmic happening,
But plan of Majesty.”

Building grand and beautiful,
Bespeaks...architectural mind.
Boundless celestial canopy,
Cries forth...Architect Divine!

On canvas of silent splendor,
Creator Majestic speaks.
As Intellect thirsts for Wisdom,
Wisdom His most loved seeks.

Wisdom says, “Not nothingness,
On vast Cosmos Sea;
But created in My image...
Sons of Majesty.”

Yes! The heavens declare God's glory,
And we shall do the same;
For we are the sons of God,
By might of Jesus' Name!

EASTER TRIUMPH

Easter means that God above,
Held nothing back in proving love.
For when at first His man rebelled,
God's love for sons determined hell,
Would be repaid for anguish caused,
When His own Son would mount the Cross,
To bear the sins of all mankind,
By bruise of back and Blood divine.

Easter is God's triumph hour,
When Christ arose the greater power.
For hell rejoiced at Friday's plight,
But greatly quaked at Easter's sight;
As myriad sons like Abraham,
In one great host with Christ the Lamb,
Ascended free of "planned abyss,"
When Spirit crushed hell's haughty hiss.

Easter means the victory is won,
And skirmish wins rest with God's sons.
For gates of hell on Easter swang,
Open wide at Voice that rang:
"Arise My Son! Arise great Child!
Your Blood so pure has reconciled,
Every son of faith that dies,
Trusting in Your sacrifice."

ENDEAVOR NEVER SEVER

When things go wrong—they sometimes do—
It's not the time to quit.
“Endeavor never sever,”
Is your motto...don't forget!

You are the best! You know you are.
So give yourself this lift,
To fail to win is not a sin—
Just time to hone your gifts.

When others count you down, then out,
Brave heart embrace this truth,
“The climbing vine type frame of mind,
Leaves behind great fruit!”

FEELING AND FAITH

Feeling and faith seldom share,
An increment of time.
When you're feeling a million bucks,
Your faith may be a dime.

It's possible the two could share...
But not especially so.
With your feeling you think it is,
But by your faith...you know.

Faith is based on knowledge of,
God's eternal Word.
Feeling comes and goes again,
Swayed by what you've heard.

Faith is now—this moment.
Faith says, "It is this hour."
Faith stands tall; but feeling crawls,
For feeling has no power.

Today you feel God cares for you;
Tomorrow...that He's forgot.
Feeling wonders if God left;
Faith knows your God has not.

When next you need an answer,
Your feelings please remind,
"God is forever faithful;
Not sometimes deaf and blind."

When with your feelings you seek God,
You have an endless quest.
Looking and a wishing for,

MAY 13
IN GOD WE TRUST

Those who love themselves alone,
    Are raising quite a fuss.
They are much concerned that some,
    Might place in God their trust.
And minted coins for commerce,
    Should praise no deity,
    Lest the children be misled,
    To acts of piety.

    One nation under Caesar,
    His image stamped in gold;
    That all who felt his tyrant hand,
    Might there his face behold.
And those who claimed, “many deities”!
    Hailed him as their god;
While we who print, “In God we trust,”
    Deny He lives. How odd!

    Now atheistic plans,
    To make God’s name unheard,
    Seem much too waste of energy,
    To squelch four harmless words.
“In God We Trust,” offends the eyes,
    Of no one but the weak—
Those who greatly fear His name,
    And refuge from Him seek.

MAY 20
JEHOVAH GOD THE SON

Three men stood while others bowed,
Yet four men all men viewed.
For in the heat of seven times,
The Fourth was like unto...

The Son of God, the Son of Man—
Messiah in the old.
They would not bow, nor would their God;
He came as they foretold!

“Our God is able, and He shall,
Deliver from death’s door.
This image formed of heathen gold,
Shall bow to Evermore.”

By the faith of their confession,
The Hebrew three had won.
The Fourth was their Deliverer—
Jehovah God...the Son!

MAY 23
JESUS EVER-FAITHFUL

Bring to Me your vessel—
The broken pieces all.
Shattered in the battle...
I hear you when you call.

When you lose your bearing,
And loved ones fade away;
Through the dark and lonely night,
I am with you till the day.

I will restore your vessel.
Again you will be whole.
I will make new the pieces,
As I restore your soul.

For I am the Builder,
Of every twice-born daughter and son;
And I remain this day,
The Ever-Faithful One!

JULY 27
OPEN PRAYER

God named His first man Adam,
A king on earth to be;
And as they ruled their kingdoms,
God guided gracefully.

In the cool of the evening,
Adam walked and talked with God;
In the gentle Eden twilight,
The Creator graced earth's sod.

In the mighty of His presence,
With the tender of His care;
God was pleased to know His man,
As they met in open prayer.

AUGUST 1
OUR VICTOR

There was a trial, a Cross, a death,
    An icy borrowed tomb;
The One Who spoke the universe,
Had died...and we were doomed.

The Author of created works—
    The Master of the quill—
Is Spoken Might; but in that night,
    Lay lifeless, cold, and still.

Then penetrating bowels of earth,
    God spoke creative power,
“Arise My Son—Your work is done—
    This is Redemption Hour!”

Lucifer’s legion demon force,
    Could not the Son restrain.
For as God said...up from the dead...
    Our Victor—Jesus—came!

A POET'S DREAM

I have a dream...in poetry,
To praise my Lord and King!
That I might speak poetically,
My Savior's love to sing.

For poetry—the lover's voice—
Is joyful heart expression;
A poet's words of choice,
For ecstatic love, confession.

And Who should more receive my praise—
My heart's glad celebration—
Than He Whom by His Blood and bruise,
Has purchased my salvation.

He's Jesus, Savior, Mighty God,
Earth's Majesty Supreme!
He is the Lyric of my song,
And Author of my dream.

PRAISE

As the meadows of winter,
Greet the dawn of spring, chilled,
Cliff flowers in April,
Lift praises concealed;

Secretly pleading,
“Lord Christ be revealed!
And flora and fauna,
Crescendo the field.”

But Symphony Master—
As angels stand by—
Ever so sweetly,
Soft-gently, replies,

“Wait patient in splendor—
Your voices denied—
For the footstool lies silenced,
Till the Sovereign...His Bride.”

So springing forth, budding,
The flowers obey;
Reflecting Love’s rainbow,
In silent display;

Bidding the Ransomed,
“Lord’s Bride be arrayed...
And poet and harpist,
Lift to Him our praise.”

Psalm praise to our Maker,
Who wakes us in spring;
Pen lyrics for sparrows,

REDEMPTION

How can I e'er convey to you,
Redemption as it is?
My spirit once by sin made dead,
Reborn by Blood now lives!

My Jesus went to the market place,
Where sin slaves were chained.
He purchased me with His own Blood.
Once lost... I've been reclaimed!

Now I'm bound to Savior's heart,
By Crimson cords of care.
Now I approach the throne of God...
And find my Father there.

SALVATION

Salvation means deliverance full,
Resides in Jesus' Name.
It is more than Lake of Fire shunned.
It is more than heaven gained.

Salvation means your spirit,
Is not by sin devoured;
But by Holy Spirit God,
Eternally empowered.

Salvation means your body,
Abides in health today,
And Satan has no power,
Over you in any way.

Salvation means renewing,
Your mind with Living Bread;
Not doubting, but believing,
Each word that God has said.

Stand firm in full salvation,
For you've been born again.
No longer bound by Satan—
No lack, not sick, no sin.

SONG OF SALVATION

Dear Savior, You promised,
As You walked this earth,
To take to Your home,
Each child of new birth.

The streets of that city of love,
Will be bright,
With Your glory, our God,
For You are the Light.

Life River will sparkle,
Through Life's healing trees:
No death, sorrow, crying,
Nor pain—only peace.

Our great loving Father
All tears will erase,
And e'er we will praise Him,
Who died in our place.

Crucified, risen,
And reigning above;
The King of All Ages,
Redeemer through love!

Our song of salvation,
All heaven will flood:
"Hallelujah, forever...
BOUGHT BACK BY HIS BLOOD!"

OCTOBER 11
T E M P L E S

Where shall the One Who stills the waves,
Seek refuge from the storm?
And will the One Who lights the stars,
Need walls to keep Him warm?

I am the Lord of all the earth;
It is by My command.
And My full glory can't be held,
In temples built by man.

For My own pleasure, I now dwell,
In temples formed by Me;
And cleansed in love by My own Blood,
For Heaven's purity.

INCARNATION

In Father's heart of love was born,
The grandeur of LOVE's Story.
In Mary's womb was Truth conceived,
And we beheld His glory!

He's the glory of the Father,
In human flesh arrayed.
God's eternal Lamb, Bethlehem born—
Yeshua ha Mashiach to earth conveyed.

Yeshua, Abba's Eden Seed--
Creator by Holy Spirit power--
As Isaiah's prophesied He came,
This Incarnate Deliverer ours!

IN BETHLEHEM'S STABLE

In Bethlehem's stable—no inn-rooms remained—
The Messiah was born, where Prophet Micah proclaimed.
God's Son most exalted, the Savior of men,
Was born in a barn, behind the inn.

To Mary's discomfort, the stable was dank;
So drafty and noisy and mightily stank.
But Gabriel's grand message—nine months to the day—
Yet glowed in her heart, to melt her dismay:

“His Name shall be JESUS, the Highest own Son,
On David's throne to reign...the One!
O'er the house of Jacob, His kingdom unending,
By act of God's Spirit, within you beginning.”

So Mary, God's chosen, gave birth to His grace,
For she was His servant, and this was the place;
Where the darkness of sin, would first view the Light,
Through gentle submission, to Heaven that night.

The King of Creation, Almighty enthroned,
As Father desired, was seeking His own.
Counting men worthy—all creatures above—
The Sovereign of earth, was serving in love.

Yes! Down from His radiant throne of might,
Heaven's Crown, bowed low that night;
That He might ransom sinful men,
And raise them up, to reign with Him!

CHRISTMAS IS COMMUNION

Will you embrace your Savior?
His Spirit will you receive?
Will you be blessed by Happiness,
In Mary's womb conceived?

Will you be reconciled to God?
Will you imbibe True Grace?
Will you ingest the Living Bread,
And be His dwelling place?

Christmas is communion birthed,
Between the LORD and man.
For our complete oneness with Christ,
God formed His Christmas Plan.

Will this Celebration of the Christ,
Be the birth of your new life?
Will you be full this Christmas Day,
With the Anointing Might of Christ?

THE CHRISTMAS LAMB

In Bethlehem Ephratha,
The Shepherd as a Man,
By Spirit's breath in human flesh,
Became the Christmas Lamb.

Incarnate Word, from Mary's womb,
Came forth in humbled birth.
And Lamb of God, the Son of Man,
Was dwelling now on earth.

The Son of Man—the Judge of all—
In manger bed of hay,
Was born a Man to be the Lamb...
Sin's wretched wage to pay.

Because God loved the world, He came,
To Bethlehem to be...
The Lamb unblemished—bearing sins—
To set sin-captives free.

CHRISTMAS IN ALL THE EARTH

Rejoice, be glad, Earth-children.
Announce the Messiah's birth.
A time of cheer when God drew near,
To ransom all the Earth.

First announcement came to shepherds,
"Good tidings of excellent joy,
Good news for all in every land,
This lad is Christ—God's Boy!"

With shepherds and later wise men,
We proclaim Messiah's birth.
Our songs of praise to Heaven we raise.
It is Christmas in all the earth!
