Preface

*For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.
2 Corinthians 10:4*

There are mainly three types of people who are reading this right now: those who have been suffering supernatural attack or demonic bondage, those who are curious about supernatural power, or those in ministry.

A word to those experiencing attack by supernatural forces

If you are already suffocating with demonic bondage, you just want to be free. Maybe nothing you've tried has worked. Your church probably has nothing that would help, or you can't even speak of such things to your pastor and church friends without being ostracized.

You may be exhausted: from searching for years for the answers; by the questions that constantly run through your mind; by the heavy burden of silent uncertainty about God, His Word, and your place in this life; by the secrets you keep locked away from your closest friends and pastor; by the often meaningless, misused, or at times illogical "Christian" platitudes that are so often regurgitated in your direction.

These are things that erode the very foundations of faith. After all, either God is real or He is not. And, if He is real, you wonder, why haven't you been able to break the demonic bondage and recurring attacks?

POWER INFUSION

A word to those curious about supernatural power

Maybe you're intrigued by ghost-hunting television programs, books about the paranormal, movies about vampires, and spell-casting that actually works. You wonder if supernatural power is real. You may know someone who is into witchcraft and you are thinking about attending a coven meeting with them but you still have some mixed feelings about it.

You ponder, if the power they use is real, what does that mean in spiritual reality? If it is real and you can access it any time you want, why shouldn't you learn more about it? Doesn't that prove that Christianity is just too narrow? Doesn't it support the idea that all paths lead to God; you just have to pick one?

A word to those in ministry

Do you wonder if there is more? Is this Christian life really just about ticking the box of attendance, getting together in a mid-week bible study or fellowship group, and saying a sixty-second prayer at the end of Sunday service? Do you long to see evidence of God's power, the fingerprints of a God at work on, in, and through His people, and wonder why it's not happening through you?

Your spiritual life with God may be dry, rote, stuck on a plateau, centered on trying to be a better person and doing the right things, laying up your treasures in heaven.

Yet, you have questions that run through your mind, if you let them, about the Acts church, seeing people healed and delivered, reading about the relationship God had with Paul, Abraham, and with John. You just have a feeling that something is missing, that there's more.

Well, signs and wonders are not just things of the past, they are part of our present and foretold of our future. The workers of dark magic prove that; supernatural power does indeed exist. That's just one of the reasons why so many people are interested in the occult right now.

God is not afraid of your questions. He has the answers you need.

Here is a truth you may not have heard. Ready?

You were created to have a supernatural relationship. But you were made to have that supernatural relationship with the Living God, the Creator of the universe, not with the Lord of Darkness.

Here is a major key:

There are only two sources of supernatural power, God Himself or the Lord of Darkness.

Without the well that exists in your heart being filled by the Holy Spirit's power the way it was meant to be, you can be drawn to 'another' supernatural power, become intrigued by it, or fantasize about having power and casting spells. In itself, this is a vulnerability to attack from the dark side. Remember these two words, they will come up over and over again: intent and longing.

I do what I do to show others that God is real, that He is alive, that His power is not only very real, but that it dwarfs all other powers just like the Bible says it does. He is truly the God of all gods. He is the Alpha and the Omega, the Aleph and the Tav, the beginning and the end, the first and the last, and the Hebrew concept of this statement is that there is no one else even in the line!

If you want to get answers to the questions you have about supernatural power, the demonic bondage you've suffered, or whether there is deeper water to be found in your relationship with God, this book is for you.

It is not just a book to read, it is a journey you embark upon to learn, to do, to experience, to leave the former behind and find what your soul longs for. Toward that end, I included a detailed table of contents so that you can easily find a section or reference when needed.

POWER INFUSION

As I write this book, I pray for every person reading this, that your relationship with God will be transformed.

He is truly the Lover of our souls.

He is your goel, your Kinsman Redeemer.

He can be the love of your life if you will let Him.

He's waiting for you.

There are quite a few books on spiritual warfare. Why did I write another one, you ask? Because spiritual warfare is not just about demons and how to break bondage. Because, ultimately, spiritual warfare is about relationship; your relationship with God.

There is more; so much more.

Introduction: Critical Foundations

Infuse – to fill or cause to be filled.

I smiled as I took my position at the front of the platform and greeted the spiritual warfare conference attendees who, with only a few exceptions, wore very serious expressions. Some seemed somewhat nervous or uncomfortable, as is often the case with the subject matter.

After the pleasantries, I got started.

“I love teaching spiritual warfare,” I beamed.

A quizzical look washed across their faces as I spoke.

“People often ask me why. I love it because it’s a front row seat to watching God break bondage and deliver people. And God wins every time!”

Does that surprise you, as it did many of the conference attendees?

Is that a foreign concept to you, that God supernaturally breaks bondage for people? And, that this kind of work fills you with joy?

Have you assumed that spiritual warfare is dark because, you think to yourself, it’s all about darkness?

Since you’re reading this book, you have probably had experience with some things that have been difficult to talk about, that may have frightened you, that others have recognized in you, or that you have not been able to overcome no matter how hard you try.

Many people who need help have searched for years to find it and have experienced things that cause feelings of doubt and defeat.

This is especially true if you have been taught the idea that those saved by the blood of Yeshua cannot have oppression or any level of demonization.

A Side Note: Yeshua is Jesus' Hebrew name, the name chosen by God for His Son. I choose to honor that. That is the name I use in my life and in my writing. However, that is not meant in any way to imply there is something wrong if you use the name Jesus. I will speak more about this later.

For those believers experiencing oppression or demonization, this contradiction leads to only two options: either, 1) "The Word of God is unreliable because I seem to be the exception to the rules in the Word of God as taught to me by my pastor." or 2) "God is not Who I believe Him to be."

In the first case that would mean, at minimum, if there are exceptions to the Word of God, the Bible can't be reliable, true, and inerrant.

In the second case, that would make scripture at best unreliable and at worst utter nonsense because God's very description of Himself is either partly or completely unreliable.

Obviously, these are the types of unanswered questions and doubts that erode the very foundations of faith and trust, in both the Word of God and in the person of God Himself.

I have experienced that and learned first-hand that what I had been taught as a child, that a Christian cannot experience oppression or demonization, was not correct. I have also experienced deliverance from bondage and understand not only the process but also the experience of feeling freedom for the first time!

You cannot walk in the power of the Holy Spirit with the thought and feeling swirling around deep inside your heart and mind that there are exceptions to God's Word, or that He is someone other than Who His Word tells us He is.

Teaching on spiritual warfare has been completely sanitized from most pulpits in the United States. In most cases it is mentioned only in passing, ignored, or completely suppressed altogether.

In "The Great Gambler", nineteenth century French poet, Charles Baudelaire, said, "The loveliest trick of the Devil is to persuade you that he does not exist." I absolutely agree on the importance of this both absurd and pivotal accomplishment. But there is more to this dastardly, in my opinion, second greatest achievement.

I believe the devil's third greatest achievement was when he convinced pastors to stop teaching spiritual warfare, the very instructions and tools to defeat his efforts and plans!

In order to achieve both of those victories, however, his first and greatest achievement was to lure Christianity away from the Hebrew roots of our faith, leading many to loudly delete the Old Testament and any connections to the New.

The ravaging effects of this cannot be overstated. This deletes the very bedrock on which our faith and walking out the faith are built, the repeated patterns that God uses as object lessons to tell His story and to explain what we are to do and how, and all of the repeating patterns that foretell what is coming, leading up to and including Christ's return!

And, in addition, it is in direct opposition to commands within the biblical texts, from God's own mouth, do not change a jot or a tittle. He meant it! There is a principle here.

Let's look at what Yeshua said in Matthew 5:17-18.

Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law until all is accomplished.

POWER INFUSION

And earlier in Deuteronomy 4:2:

You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor take away from it.

In addition see Psalm 119:160, Proverbs 30:5-6, Revelation 22:18-19.

In Hebrew, this concept of jot and tittle refers to a particle, the very smallest thing. I think changing and removing entire books and instructions from our teaching is a much larger issue than the very smallest thing.

This should be a wake-up call to anyone reading this. Humans are taking it upon themselves to remove parts of scripture, and to preach and teach to scores of others around the globe that these parts are to be removed, and in some cases, they claim you are out of line with scripture if you maintain their importance!

That caution made by Yeshua Jesus was ignored and we are reaping the results. Once those foundations were removed, the enemy forces began the next phase of their operation as the dark commanders shouted the instruction, “Twist away!”

These are tactics of the dark side to pull us away from Jesus and the power we are to have as we walk with Him. And, they have been utterly devastating to Christendom.

But there is hope! You can repair this breach and finally have the freedom and victory of Yeshua flowing in your life the way it was meant to be!

As believers in Yeshua, we do not have to stay under bondage to the forces of darkness! We are actually commanded to “pull down strongholds” (2 Corinthians 10:4) and to “walk in the light, as He Himself is in the Light” (1 John 1:7).

Let’s look at some scripture.

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love and sound mind.

II Timothy 1:7, KJV

Introduction: Critical Foundations

*And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.
Matthew 11:12, AKJV*

*I am the Light of the world; he who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of Life.
John 8:12*

*The thief comes only to steal, kill and destroy; I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.
John 10:10*

*For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal [of the flesh], but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.
II Corinthians 10:4, KJV*

*For you were formerly darkness, but now you are Light in the Lord; walk as children of Light.
Ephesians 5:8*

*The joy of the Lord is your strength.
Nehemiah 8:10*

*Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints.
Ephesians 6:10-18, ESV*

POWER INFUSION

Scripture has a lot to say about the supernatural. And there is good news found within these ancient and miraculous texts that comprise the Bible: God did not leave us defenseless! Our Lord loves us so much He gave us weapons of protection, defense, and offense, instructions for them, and the intel regarding the battle plans of the enemy forces, all so we will become adept warriors for the Kingdom!

Is every adversity the result of demonic attack? No.

Is every illness or disease caused by demonic attack? No.

But in both cases, we know that a lot of it is.

We must learn to use the tools our loving Father gave us and to become skillful with them. Then we must take our position on the field and get in the game that is already underway.

In order to effectively do this, we need to have a proper view of scripture. What I mean by that is that we must take the whole Word of God, not just the New Testament or just the four gospels, but the whole Word of God.

The Word of God is life!

The laws of God are not burdensome but are life to the wise.

*The wise in heart will receive commandments.
Proverbs 10:8, KJV*

For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.

1 John 5:3

Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His loving kindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments.

Deuteronomy 7:9

*15 If you love Me, you will keep My commandments. 21
He who has My commandments and keeps them is the* one who loves Me; and he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will disclose Myself to him. 23 If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him. 24 He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.

John 14:15, 21, 23, 24

The one who despises the word will be in debt to it, but the one who fears the commandment will be rewarded.

Proverbs 13:13

Walking out the instructions given to us in the Bible is a really big deal to God. Yeshua Jesus IS the Word. We can't love Him and not keep His Word; you cannot separate them.

According to the Bible, how many Gods are there in Christianity? One. Who wrote the Old Testament? God. Who is God? Yeshua is God, He is one with the Father. The whole Word was written by Him because there is only one God of the Bible! He was there at the beginning and all things were made by Him and through Him.

There were supernatural things that I observed in my life starting at a very young age. This book is born from my own journey of discovery and deliverance, and the revelations I received along the way, which eventually led to the establishment of Myrtle Ministries.

The ministry God led me to develop is dedicated to providing assistance to mature believers struggling with bondage and to equip the remnant in these last days.

But this journey of freedom is foundational for all believers and should be taught through discipleship from the moment of salvation. Sadly, that is not the case.

POWER INFUSION

Bondage can come from many sources, and we will address that in this book, but ultimately all of it traces back to dark forces.

We have instructions in the Word of God on how to deal with the demonic. First and foremost, I rely on scripture. I also sought significant training over many years from multiple ministries that specialize in spiritual warfare and deliverance so that I would not fall into the trap of receiving only one point of view. My training also included biblical counseling with an emphasis in trauma. Then, after years of experience, the ministry framework the Lord intended to establish took shape.

What I share in this book is in no way meant to disparage anyone else's ministry or the way they perform their ministry. I am only responsible for what I believe God has led me to do. I have put in a whole lot of prayer, countless hours of study with mentors, and even more hours as I studied and researched on my own.

I was led to use a unique, three pillar approach, by combining inner healing counseling to address wounding and negative life patterns, with spiritual warfare to address bondage, together with a strong discipleship component. We will unpack this concept in detail later.

Many churches and congregations don't offer support services. If they do, they usually offer standard biblical counseling which can indeed be helpful when conducted appropriately. But there are two problems with that.

Here's the first problem. In general, pastors receive very little training in counseling, if any at all. Therefore, pastoral counseling is, unfortunately, too often conducted in an inappropriate manner and/or the counsel given to clients is so off base and hurtful that they leave in a worse condition than when they went in. I have experienced this myself multiple times and so had many of my clients before they came to me.

The second problem is that it stops short; standard biblical counseling is not meant to address demonic bondage. In most cases the demonic is not even mentioned or referred to in any way, and the counselors are not trained to deal with it. All of my clients so far have had biblical counseling before coming to me, in some cases for many years.

Other congregations offer only deliverance, which, again, can be very helpful when done skillfully by teams who have been properly trained. But, if the ministry team doesn't take the time to learn where the open doors are, how they were opened in the first place, and then soundly shut them, there is a risk that the bondage and attack may return. Scripture warns us of this danger.

When the unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when it comes, it finds it swept and put in order. Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first.

Luke 11:24-26

In addition, if there is no discipleship process included at the same time in the ministry clients receive, they don't learn how to break bondage for themselves, how to address future attacks, how to walk in freedom every day for the rest of their life, or how to minister bondage-breaking healing to others.

Why, as care givers, would we ignore in our support models the fact that what we battle and overcome will be used by our Lord to minister to others? Our clients should come out of the healing process ready and equipped to do so.

We must train the future trainers at every opportunity. This is, in my opinion, how we will turn the church around from weak to strong.

POWER INFUSION

Even though it might be shocking or difficult to believe for someone who has endured long-term supernatural attack, breaking the bondage of the demonic and casting them out is actually the easy part. Addressing the negative life patterns and wounds of bondage is the more difficult part that takes some time.

It's not just about getting free: it is about staying free for the rest of your life and being able to minister to others. This is what we are all called to do.

Let's look at this a little more closely.

Trauma can create an open door for bondage

If you work through some of the trauma on an emotional and psychological level but never address the supernatural bondage that was created when it occurred, you only heal part of the damage and do not evict the dark forces that created the bondage in the first place.

Here's an example of that scenario. If the trauma was received by a child who is now my adult client, we can address the trauma with counseling but when trauma is experienced, especially by a child, there is usually a degree of spiritual bondage that was created at that moment in time. If we successfully achieve a level of healing emotionally and psychologically, but never address the dark supernatural bondage that was created at the moment of trauma, the bondage can continue unbroken or it can return. I hear this from my clients all the time. They don't understand why they still have supernatural bondage when they've been through Christian counseling. The answer is simple: standard counseling does not address demonic bondage at all.

Bondage can create trauma

On the converse, if you receive deliverance from significant spiritual bondage and do not address the emotional and psychological issues that either were the invitation to or the results of the long-term bondage, you can continue to have an open door that keeps you vulnerable to supernatural attack.

Here is an example of that scenario. Let's say you are a college student and a friend convinces you to attend a party where they perform occult rituals, and while there you experience a horrifying demonic attack. We can break the bondage of the demonic attack by the power of the blood of the Lamb without a problem. But if we do not address why you were drawn to attend an occult ritual in the first place, plus why you were even friends with people who would attend an occult ritual, and then also get you on a solid spiritual foundation, you could find yourself again drawn to dark powers, sometimes without realizing it due to a lack of discernment and maturity, or you could be the target of another demonic attack because you never learned spiritual warfare and you don't know how to defend against it.

So, in this case, the bondage from the attack must be addressed through spiritual warfare, but through counseling and inner-healing we must also deal with the trauma and related emotions created at the time of the demonic attack.

Spiritual warfare is not just for an emergency! It is a way of life. It is not like calling an exterminator to remove a pest, doing that work for you. It is the responsibility of every believer. We have to learn how to WALK in the freedom of Christ...every day, 24/7!

We can't move forward in life or in ministry if we are bound by the past. Counseling enables us to address wounds and discover veiled origins of pain, trauma, and ungodly life patterns.

As we prayerfully address past trauma and uncover the root sources of pain and negative life patterns, with the power and direction of the Holy Spirit, we break any bondage as it is revealed.

This ministry approach is based on a strong discipleship model where the counselor walks alongside you as you learn to break bondage and walk in power, love, and a sound mind: for life. It also equips you to be used in ministry to others.

Renowned spiritual warrior and deliverance minister, Russ

POWER INFUSION

Dizdar, recently said in an interview, “I get to see people saved, real healing, people who had demons get delivered, stand up, yield to Jesus, their whole countenance, everything’s changed. I get to see the power of God operate.”

Then, he pointed out, “Only we can do this. The demons know this. Believers. Only we’ve been commissioned to do this, only we have the authority; nobody else does. No possessed person has ever gotten free on their own.”

“What?” you say. “I’m supposed to minister this to others?”
You bet!

Our biggest struggles in life often become our ministry. I know people who lost a child and ended up starting a ministry to support others who lost a child. Not every believer is called to this ministry in a formal way, but we are all called to minister in this way to one another within the body of Yeshua.

This can be so powerful. It is something that the soul is so hungry for that it comes up often outside church walls and can be the impetus for salvation just as it was in Jesus’ ministry. The bondage is broken, the recipients see and experience the power of the one true God, and if given the opportunity will yield their heart to Him forever in that very moment. If this had been taking place in every church, there would never have been such an increase of interest in the occult and the profound moral decline in our culture.

This type of deep inner healing that I’m talking about is not fluffy and comfortable. Rather, it is messy, uncomfortable, and can at times be a bit scary as you confront your deepest issues that have held you back. It is warfare in the true sense of the word!

The process reveals the things that you often aren’t able to or are not willing to see in yourself. It will ferret out the hiding places of darkness and break the chains of bondage. It is a conduit to minister the healing of Yeshua Jesus by the power of the Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) and to provide via the process, the training necessary to walk in the “power, love and a sound mind”, as described in II Timothy 1:7, every day for the rest of your life.

Using this approach, with the complete picture made by having all of the pieces of the puzzle in place, you are much less likely to ever fall into bondage again...and it utterly transforms your relationship with Jesus.

This is how we learn to walk in freedom, in power, love and a sound mind; for life.

This process is not a passive one where you rely on someone else to fix things for you. I have a client who recently said, “You can’t just take the Fasting check-out lane or go through the drive-through window for your Mc-Healing.”

This is a process that is more like a ministry boot-camp that trains you, using your own real life experience as the example, on how to recognize the powers of darkness in your life, understand how they got there, to break the chains, to walk in the Light of Yeshua, and to never again become victim to the deception, torment and oppression.

The process involves a commitment of time, a lot of prayer, seeking the Lord through deep repentance with fasting, and lots of homework – homework that no one else can do for you.

Unfortunately, there are very few ministries in the U.S. that deal with this issue of inner healing or deliverance, and as a result, because of the ever increasing need as darkness grows in the end times, many ministries that are anointed and good at what they do have a backlog; some have a one-year waiting list. There is a lot of time and prayer invested by these dedicated ministry teams.

This model that I use with my clients takes, on average, four months to complete. Obviously, I can’t work with everyone who needs help one-on-one or in seminars. That’s another reason I’m writing this book. The need is so great and it is increasing.

Just in the past few years there have been numerous articles revealing the fact that the Catholic Church is training exorcists as fast as they can, due to the explosion in demonic attack, possession, and influence. Look at just a few of those headlines:

Top Psychiatrist: Demonic Possession Is Very Real and On the Rise, CBN News, July 6, 2016

As believers, we've been told the end of the story before it unfolds, so we should know that the end-times prophecies foretell a great rise in supernatural power. It will continue to increase.

God designed each of us to be born in this time. It is not a mistake. You have the ability to become a fierce warrior for the Kingdom! This book will show you how to get there and I pray it will be one of the most amazing journeys of your life.

Is this intense, no-stone-unturned healing journey worth it?

What is gained by going through spiritual boot camp to learn how to be effective at spiritual warfare and get free from bondage?

I feel called to equip and empower the Remnant to be effective in the last days. We can't be effective for Kingdom work, nor can we experience the fullness of the relationship with Jesus that is available to us, if we are bound by destructive patterns, trauma, and spiritual oppression. I work to minister the mercy and power of Yeshua Jesus to bring freedom from bondage and to move into deeper relationship with the Savior of our souls, so that we can boldly take back the territory the enemy has stolen.

I also work to educate believers in effective and powerful spiritual warfare according to the biblical model (which has largely been flushed from or diluted in many congregations), for both greater individual freedom and in order to be equipped for powerful ministry.

Does that sound intriguing?

Do you desire a deeper relationship with Yeshua?

Are you in ministry and feel restrained in a spiritual sense, as if something is holding you back from accomplishing what you are called to do?

Recall that I've been through this process myself over the years, in addition to ministering this type of healing to others. What is my suggestion?

DIVE IN!

You know, when I was younger, I heard a few older women say that Jesus was the love of their lives. Honestly, I thought that was just something they said to sound super-spiritual. I have learned I was completely wrong!

It is true that you can have a much deeper relationship with our Savior.

It is true that you can see the spirit of the Living God defeat the strongest forces of the demonic.

It is true that you can reach a point where He truly is the love of your life.

You can discover how to hear His voice more clearly.

And, if all this is true, what do you think the effect will be on your own faith and actual relationship with Yeshua?

It changes everything!

POWER INFUSION

If I had to make one statement everyone could hear before they tuned out this critical subject, it would be this:

As goes your proficiency with spiritual warfare, so goes your relationship with Yeshua Jesus!

That's why I can say that this is not just about breaking demonic bondage.

Ultimately, spiritual warfare is about your relationship with Jesus.

Is this the first time you heard that?

Years after my own journey, I do not regret a single moment. I only wish I'd known sooner.

I invite you to come on a journey with me. Let's unpack this subject and find out what the church and the world are truly dying for.

INFUSION – to fill or cause to be filled.

With the revelation of the information, and aligning ourselves in obedience, we are infused with our King's supernatural power...and that changes everything in us.

In a message on July 13th, 2019, Pastor Mark Biltz went over the Torah portion for the Sabbath: Judges 10:11-16.

In verse 13, God is responding to Israel's disobedience after God had done so much for them. It says God's soul was grieved at their betrayal.

“Wherefore I will deliver you (יָשָׁא, yasha, Strong's 3467) no more,” he said.

Then just a verse later, the children of Israel admitted they betrayed Him in sin.

And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; deliver us (נָצַל, natsal, Strong's 5337) only, we pray thee, this day. Judges 10:15, KJV

Pastor Biltz was pointing out that a different word was used for what is translated into English in both places as 'deliver'.

The word God used was yasha, which means to deliver, to be set free, wide open, like a bird let out of a cage. It is also the root of Yeshua, Who is our salvation, foretelling our Messiah.

The word Israel used was natsal, which does mean deliverance but in a different way. Biltz described it, "It's not set free like a bird, it's more like, can you just get us out of this corner and put us in another corner, like another side of the bird cage."

This can only be seen in the original Hebrew.

The Old Testament is constantly revealing Yeshua and how to recognize Him.

God had complete deliverance in mind, Israel just wanted to move to a different spot in the same cage.

Yasha! Yeshua! Deliver us, Lord, as we give You the praise and the glory for Your mercy and power!

God has good plans for us and His instructions are enough. He will infuse us with His power if we will follow instructions. That filling can only come from Him and as it is filling empty places you didn't even know you had, you then realize: it changes everything.

Are You Ready?

A Guidebook that equips and empowers the Remnant to be effective in the last days! This training is a road map to freedom from bondage. And the passage will move you into deeper relationship with the Savior of our souls, so we can boldly take back the territory the enemy has stolen!
