Hi, I'm KING.

I live with my sister, Queen, and our humans. We are very lucky cats.

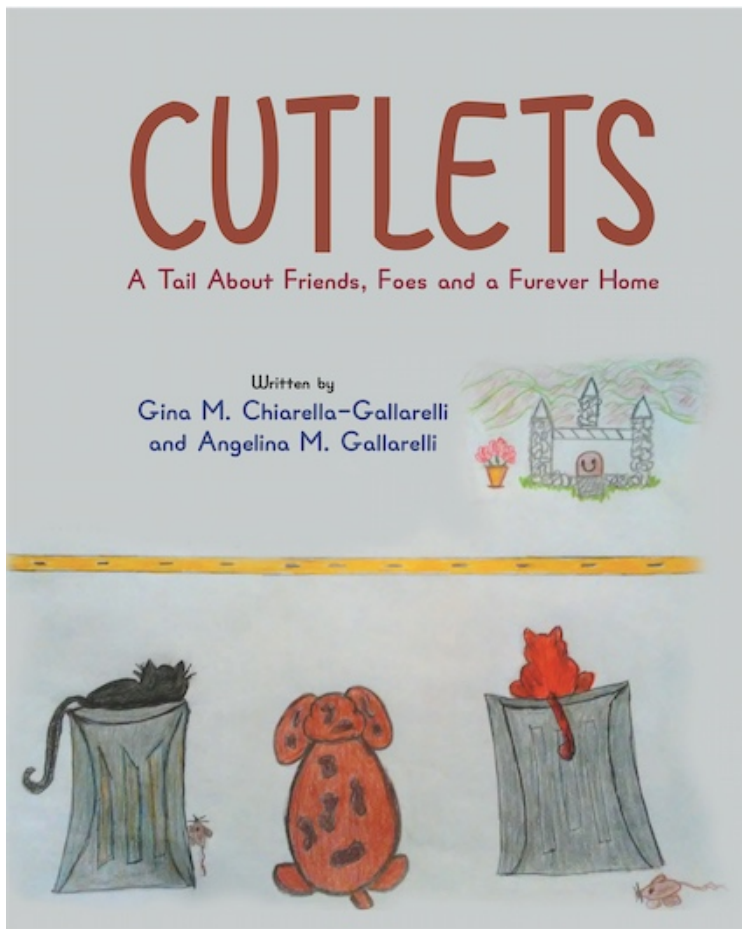

Queen and I were abandoned and ended up in trash cans.

Those trash cans were very scary, dark and cold. We only had each other and the rats. Crying was our only hope in getting rescued. We would cry as loud as we could and finally our crying paid off and we were found.

Our rescuers took us to the Vet where they got us healthy enough to go to the local animal shelter.

It wasn't so bad; any place was better than those trash cans!

When king and queen get adopted they go from trash to class. They are 2 lucky cats, their humans spoil them with all the love an affection a cat can ask for. UNTIL
