A word about the “ME TOO” movement and “TIMES UP” movements.

I published my book called “UNIVERSAL SISTERHOOD” in 2011. I knew then spiritually that the time had come for women to step into their own power. After all this is the Aquarian age. The symbol of this age is the man walking across the sky holding the water pitcher. It is the age of unity and balancing of all things, men and women. It is the bringing together of duality. In this age the awakening of the soul will happen. On the front page of my book you will read the words “AND WOMEN SHALL LEAD” Now only 8 years later I hear that in the mid-term election 27 women ran for the office of senator. Many more are running for president. While 400 something other women were running for other political offices. I say, go women go, I speak blessings upon you, I speak victory and courage upon you. Let us make a better world for our children. Since I wrote this book, a lot of water has gone down the river. But finally, we took a big step toward the sanctity of women. What a powerful teaching for our children and young people. Now we as adult women, most can say “ME TOO”. We are not known, and no one pays attention to us. Yet it seems like it was only yesterday. Most of us can remember a perpetrator. Women around the world in high and low places tell their stories. We will move into the future knowing that those things are part of the past. I would like to thank God, for it is said that all things come from above. He heard the cry of His children. As I said the wisdom of a female has been an unspoken factor behind strong male energy. Women are a force to be reckon with.

I issue a manifesto to women throughout the world to focus on their intuitive powers to elevate the status of Aquarian Developments.

Universal Sisterhood

A woman opens her mouth with wisdom and on her tongue is the law of kindness.

Proverbs 31:26

“Men have always ruled the world, but this is all over now, because we girls are coming, and believe me, we are coming in a storm.”

Those were the words of a South African teenage girl at the groundbreaking ceremonies of the Oprah Winfrey Leadership Academy for Girls in Johannesburg, South Africa. Oprah said, “This is a supreme moment of destiny.” Through this act of kindness, leaders will arise from that small beginning and will spread like wildfire throughout the world.

This young girl spoke not on her own but gave the world a great revelation from God for the coming time.

A New Beginning

The new millennium sings to women and all of humanity a song of new beginnings. Nature renews herself continually; humans are also constantly changing and growing. In this new era, most of us search for a greater meaning in life, believing the universe has something great for every of us. The impact of the tragedy on September 11, 2001, left an uneasy feeling in us.

That disaster changed many of us. Any tragic event jolt us out of complacency.

A broader picture is emerging and awakening us to a more spiritual life. September 11 was a thunderbolt because we had been on automatic pilot for a long time. Many of us promised to change, to look at life differently. We are now challenged to rise from our individual concerns to a broader picture of humanity. We can see that we are not alone in this world but have brothers and sisters who are suffering greatly. We are compelled to help them, to make their lives easier. Our heavenly Father does not like to see His people suffer. He likes to see joy on all our faces.

Our Lord Jesus Christ came to make this world a better place and taught us to love one another. Through this new insight, we understand that we must learn to get along. Let us see this new beginning as a glorious opportunity to go forward in the love of God. This love was always with us, but we did not recognize it all the time, or in many cases, we rejected it. Love will start a new awareness in us. This newly found love must be applied in our daily lives. It will transform the human experience greatly and will bring us to a higher level of awareness. We are walking away from the old to a more fulfilling life. One cannot bring old thinking into the new era. We will use our valuable time for great causes.

We, as a people, will become gentle and appreciative toward one another. Any tragedy, may it be on a national or personal level, brings us to new understandings. In this new millennium, we will enter a new greatness as a people. Some might say they have not seen any changes. Yet every journey starts with a first step. Great inventions are coming our way and will be everyday events. Unknown mysteries are starting to unravel. During the evolution of man, great teachers appeared at different times and in different countries. In our time, many will come to new understandings all at once. This is the greatest time to be on this planet. Our souls have waited for this time.

What Does Universal Sisterhood Represent?

The word universal means “we sing a song in unison.” This song is all-encompassing and has many verses. A universal sisterhood comes in love, never with force. We represent the new life and the new condition. This is the time of liberation for all creation, a cosmic turning point in the scheme of things. We sisters know that the power we are coming with is from above and that no one can shut the door. We will succeed this time with strength unknown to any movement. This song that will be sung all over the world will move us from a theoretical to a hands-on application.

As the gates open wide, women are standing at the entrance, contemplating what to do next. We are demanding nothing less than total liberation for women all over the world. There is a time for everything under the sun, and our time is now. Universally united we stand strong. The power of this movement is begging description for it is indescribable. Women have moved from a position of weakness to a position of strength. Once men understand, they are more than willing to stand side by side with us for the betterment of our planet. They will request for us to accomplish together greater things than ever before. They will guide their steps to gladly include the other half to be complete. Women will break the chain of abuse once they learn and put into practice the power that is theirs by divine right. We can only be fully liberated with God’s blessings. We are His daughters, and we have been with Him from the beginning. Our true position is neither negotiable nor questionable; it is what it is. This spiritual liberation gives us the authority to move forward. We are one. Love is glorious.

Women Are at the Forefront

As changes occur on earth, women are at the forefront. Our nurturing spirits are necessary for lasting change. Growth comes from following a plan. Women have a natural ability to handle relationships with all. We are surrounded by a special aura of love. We are coming from years of hardships and are marching toward our victory. The drama of moving forward had its own consequences in the past, but now the doors are wide open, and we are not looking back. Women in the western world have had their physical liberation, but now the time has come for the spiritual liberation. One is not complete without the other. Our goal is total liberation. We are not totally free until every woman on earth is liberated. If only some of us are liberated, we have not reached our goal. The world listens to women with high profiles. It is their assignment to step forward and take part in this mighty work. Far-reaching impacts will follow. Truly, in the eyes of God, we were never victims but always His beloved children, engaged in making a better life not only for our own children, but also for the entire world.

Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.

Proverbs 31:29

This Generation Will Surpass Them All

Yes, we surpass them all by looking forward and by forgiving our oppressors. Let us now look to tomorrow and see what plan our heavenly Father has for His daughters. Our trials before this long-awaited freedom have been completed. The karma has been paid. There is a beginning for everything under the sun and there is also an ending. We have not become complacent or unchallenged. We have paid our dues. Women through the centuries grew weary from the pain, it forced them to cast their eyes down. The few who raised their eyes to seek a new path led the way for our independence, allowing the women of today to look life squarely in the eye. Now the door has opened beyond the pain. Our courage has been ignited and has given us understanding and compassion for our fellow human beings. This means a new life and a new condition. Women in the western world have long believed they were free and liberated, but their spiritual understanding is only now beginning.

Find the spirit of love in your heart.

Women Are Victorious

And there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars.

Revelation 12:1

The woman in Revelation 12:1 shows us that Eve was successful. She is victorious at the end, for a crown was handed to her. She is the queen of heaven, but also of earth. The sun and moon under her feet show us that she overcame the earthly things. The twelve stars represent the twelve tribes of Israel. Our first mother, Eve, led all women throughout time to total victory.

This journey has made us strong for this time, which was destined from time immemorial. Adversity changes people; it gives them a new insight. Once perceptions change, new possibilities present themselves. One emerges stronger from travail and limitations. Are you not a new person? Most women understand themselves; they have the talent for knowing where they come from and where they are going. Through this divine understanding, the drama of the “second-class citizen” has ended. The new time has begun.

We have been confused about our roles as women and about taking our rightful places. Women are more than willing to help planet earth in this new stage of evolution. It has never been about a man opening our car doors, nor was it about how much we could lift. Because of this confusion, some took advantage of women. Women themselves were unsure of their positions. Certain women played roles that men designed for them. In this generation, women walk away from those roles to follow their own intuitions. They try to create their own role in society. No matter what women try in the future, no matter what office they choose to attain, they will succeed. Let us support one another in every endeavor. Once we unite, we are a powerful and immovable force.

Coming from a family of seven girls, I like to be around women. I am a woman that went through many years of domestic violence, which brought me to the place where I am today. It gave me the opportunity of becoming a person of great insight. If one has not gone through fire, one does not know how hot the flames can be. My wings had been clipped, but just like many of you, they have grown stronger and allow me to soar.

However, all this is not the reason for this book. I have a divine calling to be a student of a great spiritual teacher, Olumba O. Obu, from the nation of Nigeria. He is telling the whole world it is now time to love one another. Through Him, I learned to first forgive myself and then forgive those who wronged me and love all creation. His divine wisdom is far above earthly wisdom. He is the one who decreed that the time for liberation of women is now.

Our Time Is Here

Women of the world, without a doubt, our time is here. Those who are still in slavery, hold on, your time for liberation has come. The reality is that love will rule. We will not bargain away our new position or be evasive about it. We have come to recognize ourselves. We are here to stay. We will be at the forefront of life-changing events in the world. Our input will be of utmost importance. The world cannot go forward without half the population. This is a great victory and has moved us from heartbreak to total triumph.

Spiritual liberation is the true “aha moment” for women. Truly, our fundamental goal was predestined from the beginning of time. The journey that women went through is an astonishing one. My spiritual mother said that this journey gives us strength for this time. This maturity comes only from hardship. Once we understand our circumstances, the tragedy ends. The only victims here are those who stand in our way. Repression invites karma, which brings pain and regret to the oppressor. We shall move from law to grace.

As Sister Beverly states, “Our mundane world is the plane of effect. The spirit world is the plane of cause.” We will rule our environment with peace, love, joy, and harmony, which emanate from the Spirit. Once we know our authentic self, we are empowered. Our super conscious mind, the mind of Christ within, will lead us. It has neither a beginning nor an end. Once we find that this truth is found richly in our hearts, it will be evident in our daily lives. This is the age of the Spirit. Our souls will be at the forefront and clamor for quality time. Ignoring the soul will has consequences.

Laugh, women, for our time has come! We have been set free many years ago on the physical level; the spiritual freedom must follow and is here. As the spiritual mother is set free, so are her daughters set free from all over the world. Those are defining moments in the new millennium, moments that are life changing. The fence is now behind us. This forces us to take a new look at ourselves to see who we are and to check where we are going. The pain of yesteryear will disappear as we grow stronger. The piercing intensity of disillusionment from the past left us doubting ourselves. We are experiencing this defining moment individually as well as collectively, and its impact is being felt all over the world. Let us unite in this circle of sisterhood and let us share our feelings and thoughts. It is exciting to see where this new role will lead us. The road will be cleared for us as we dare to move forward with this new God-given freedom. Nobody will ever dim our light again. Yes, we have broken the bondage which once suppressed us. We are accepting this new role with thankful hearts. Once this freedom has found a place in our hearts, it will not disappear. Previous darkness will be forgotten as though it never existed.

I Had a Dream In 2003

I saw thousands of women in a huge lobby waiting for an escalator to take them to a higher level in a tall building, like a hotel. They were anxious to make this journey. A few people, including our spiritual mother and myself, were waiting on the higher level for them to join us. As I looked down, all I could see was a big field of flowers in every color of the rainbow. Their clothing showed me that all were women.

This dream was given to me in Florida, the land of light. This was a revelation of things to come. It means that women are anxious to move to a higher level of spirituality.

Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established.

Proverbs 16:3

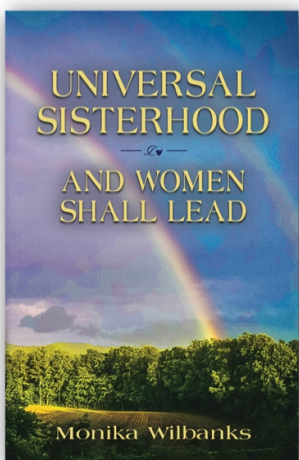

The Light Is Shining on Women

When our Father opens doors, no one can close them. God opens doors for His daughters and allows the light to shine upon them, as He blesses them. Therefore, we can step boldly onto this new ground. We have the spiritual duty to help our sisters in other countries to alleviate oppression of old traditions and cultures, so that they, too, can reach freedom and step into the light. What great joy it is for us to help our sisters in this struggle for the betterment of planet earth. It is a holy duty, a royal assignment.

The pain we women endure to bring forth new life and perpetuate love and kindness shows true humanity. We express our true selves for the betterment of this planet. Changes will start in our own hearts and minds.

Women know this is your time. Stop your weeping hold your heads up high. Is it not amazing that we have let men rule over us the very men we brought into this world?

Let love open the door.

The time is now for women to rise above all that held them back. The wisdom of a female has been an unspoken factor behind the strong male enery. And that wisdom is the key to change the world. Women have the nurturing spirit that is necessary to sustain any lasting change.
