Everyday Tasha would climb up on the side of the nest
just the way Gem had done.

She'd stretch out her wings and flap them as fast as she could and try to fly and then "thumpt" she'd fall back into the nest.

Again and again.

Each time Mama would return, smile down at her and say,
"Not yet. But don't give up, keep trying little one."

Then one day Tasha woke up from her nap,
she was very hungry.

She called out for her mama.
"Mama, I'm hungry. Mama? Mama?"
