CHAPTER 3:

YOU MIGHT BE A ZOMBIE

In 1968, the movie Night of the Living Dead brought the zombie into the big screen and American popular culture. A movie that was based on a radiation event that caused the dead buried humans to pop back out of their graves and go seeking pretty young people to eat and consume their flesh. Night of the Living Dead really was a movie that appeared somewhat homemade, very believable; it shocked and scared audience as undead roam the earth to fill their appetite with unsuspecting humans. It was a grisly tale at the evil of all times showing humans eating another human splattering guts and blood across walls, purveying the sense of demonic possession. It represented humanity as nothing but the worst potential outcome for humans to face. Hell on earth controlled by the planetary enemy in space, reptilians. The Night of the Living Dead started the graveyard of the gory zombie movement in our communication systems.

The word zombie comes from the voodoo culture, referring to a dead person who is walking about not talking. By definition, it is not exactly the monster Hollywood horror movies portray - that is an over-exaggeration. The original zombie had meaning to a person's everyday life, but as many found out, it was a factual reality.

The term originated in the Caribbean roughly a couple hundred years ago as a counter to the Christian Evangelists spreading the word of the gospel. Superstitious people quickly learned techniques to neutralize the power of the word of God and the preaching of moral standards.

The voodoo doll, a symbol of the zombie target, aka "the preacher," is used as a reminder, as females collected and archived negative statements and/or actions a preachy person was being observed doing. Each time the witch found fault with something the zombie target was doing, she placed a pin in his voodoo doll. Once the witch got enough pins, the doll had archives full of reminders of negative behavior designed to neutralize the zombie target. Zombies could no longer speak to pass moral judgment or biblical instruction because the witches could hold their past over their heads. This served as a constant reminder for people to see what “the preacher” has done. It acted as a warning to not listen to him.

The modern American news media is an expert at this zombie making technique. It spooks any knowledgeable person, aka “the preacher,” from speaking truth in survival behavior or identifying enemy behavior. Regardless of if they are or are not on television. The power of mass media communication has ultimate voodoo power over the entire population.

Camera voodoo magic is based upon the relationship to the powers of Satan with the strategic intent of stopping communication of human life survival. Media “voodoo magic” is the polar opposite of the teachings of Jesus; that all humans make mistakes and to get along, you will have to forgive one another. The news never forgives.

The modern voodoo magic is now contained through recorded television data found in the archives. This makes it possible for the talking heads, the witch doctors, to dig up something in somebody’s past, holding them prisoner and preventing them from speaking for the good of humanity. What is going on in front of you as you watch the news is an amplification of this known technique by the enemy as it attempts to destroy human leadership, making zombies out of wonderful humans - “preachers” - who are communicating information for the benefit of others in an articulate voice. This is very effective zombie control to a wide range of people with multiple viewpoints to keep the truth unknown.

Good people appear dead; no longer shown on TV news. Why? They’re not able to muster enough courage to speak up. This is mostly because so many witch doctors are in control of broadcast news; talking about the harmful acts being inflicted to produce enough fear in preachers of being voodoo'd by television cameras.

What have you really seen on cable news?

The planned and coordinated denial of God's contact signals which coincide with the Book of Revelation, so that we do not detect (like the frog) the extermination techniques sneaking up on us all. The true apocalypse is when we here on Earth realize forces outside our solar system have technology to affect our planet.

Why does God send an apocalypse? To get earth to stop doing what Satan and his devil wants, and what does Satan and his devil want? earth humans to self-exterminate. Satan and his devils can overtake the planet for their life forms. And the critical factor in all this is Satan has to use earth humans to kill off the other earth humans. Satan has to make us do it to ourselves with his beast.

The Beast of Satan

The Beast comes right before God makes return space contact. Why? The Beast is the enemy delay system with dictatorship via video devices over all humans held in zombie captivity. The Beast really doesn't want earth to get any part of God's message. It is the voice against the voice of truth. The enemy captive reality is what The Beast wants you to think. Fear of the camera gives power and control.

Who can ever deny the power of the camera that can make anyone famous and destroy the target's zombie's life? Zombie people believe The Beast like clockwork. The power of The Beast is in what they don't tell you. The Beast can make anyone famous. The Beast can destroy anyone's life career. The Beast gives the fattest mouth of his choosing air time to make statements that support his master Satan's viewpoint. Everybody is wrong except those that are helping Satan. And never say Jesus!

Zombie Apocalypse Training

The ruling zombies control The Beast with advertising revenue to keep the public captive. They control the masses by only showing and saying what they want to tell in media content. The hidden zombie editor beast controls and scripts all the news carefully to control any part of the apocalypse message from getting out or from giving clues to space contact. Talking heads are parallels of a hooded cobra; the viewer is a deer staring into headlights trying to figure out what's going on.

Ultimately, Zombie Apocalypse Training is to understand the final stages of zombie-ism; the enemy has created The Beast to deny being in full relationship with God. The ultimate zombie becomes the person who believes being good and accepting everything The Beast does is a successful way of life. Ultimate Zombies don't bother anyone and they can never make up their minds about anything good versus anything evil. That zombie, that lukewarm believer doesn't care either way, The Beast is alright.

CHAPTER 9:

AREA 51

Matthew, an alien hunter in a blue golf shirt sporting a 2019 New Zealand World Cup baseball cap, lifted his camera for another Facebook post. He was standing outside Area 51 by alien tourist attractions on the Extraterrestrial Highway in Nevada. Exposing Area 51, the secret government hideaway, alien bodies is what Area 51 is all about.

Area 51 is north of Las Vegas, near the Edwards Air Force Base, an area for testing specialty aircraft like the U2 and developing technology for the Air Force. Now Area 51, as you well know, associates with aliens, made famous in the 1950s story of a crashed alien spaceship and recovered alien body. It received a variety of news coverage as the Roswell UFO.

There are no alien spaceships in Area 51. There are no alien bodies. Space is too big for a body to travel. It would never stay alive long enough to travel the vast distances between solar systems. Science knows and understands this, and nothing about Area 51 involves the landing of an alien spacecraft.

Area 51 was a code name used by intelligence agencies to remove information about materials they did not want the public to see. When they discovered a book or scientific writing uncovering something, they did not want the public to know they would send it off to Area 51.

Here is my best guess why Area 51 associates with aliens. Somewhere in the 1940s, after World War II, the CIA wanted a cover story and to keep the conspiracy theorists happy. And Wa-la, we have aliens. Archeologists had discovered a very special and disturbing fossil, a lizard man skeleton. It was a bipedal form of reptile. The lizard man skeleton, aka the reptilian, is the smoking gun to the reptilian nemesis in space. No world government wanted this information brought to the public, so they embarked on an erasure program. The Devil always likes to erase evidence; it is one of his key characteristics. They sent all data on the reptilian to Area 51 to prevent the spread of the skeleton's discovery, because the implications are too scary for the public and may cause panic. However, it was impossible to keep the lid on the discovery as rumors spread about it being an alien.

A lot of smart scientists knew what this meant; there was another life system in our galaxy. It was rock solid, evidence of a bipedal competing life form. So they had to create a cover story. A story bizarre is enough to divert the public's interest from the truth, keeping it in the realm of UFOs. The subject of extraterrestrial life had slipped out. The cat was out of the bag.

The real enemy is the primary life form of the dinosaur/reptile system occupying Earth millions of years ago. Aliens did not land in Roswell. They were already here.

Satan doesn't go to all the effort in forming a life planet. Satan's strategy from Hell (another location in space) is to steal life planets from Creator God, like a parasite. So in our creation, Satan cross seeded the planet with the dragon comet and the nemesis biological weapons of dinosaurs. The remnants of which are the fossils held in Area 51.

If Satan wins the planet, it goes to Hell; the devil lives on earth, any mammal survivors are a food source. Hell as posted on Facebook; is the truth learned too late. Earth isn't going to Hell, Hell is coming here.

CHAPTER 21:

WHY THE WAR ON CHRISTMAS

And here we are today celebrating Christmas 2,000 years later.

In December 2018, an article appeared in Newsweek magazine: “City removes decades-old nativity scene after constitutional complaints.” The war on Christmas is alive and well in the United States of America. However, banning a simple symbol designed to remind people of God, hope, and that a savior is coming is not something the enemy wants earth humans to remember.

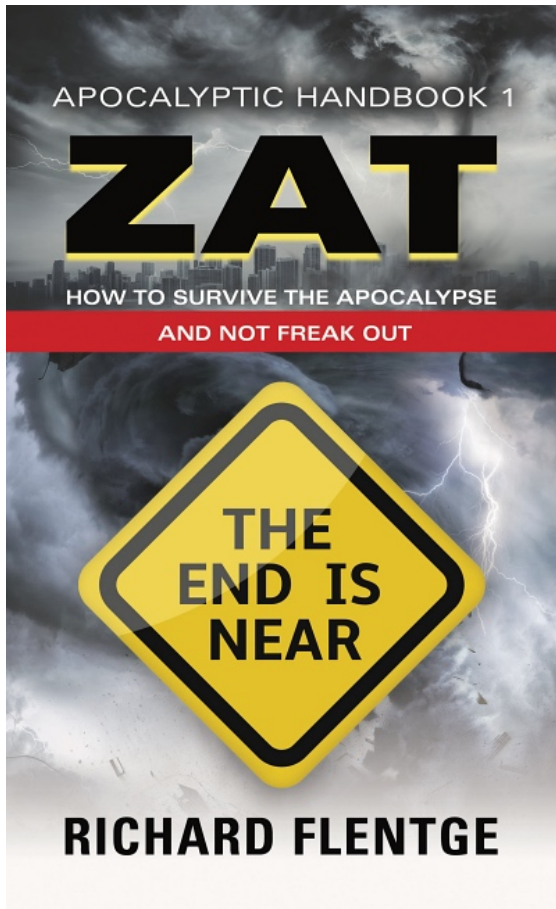

The zombie city is approximately 35 miles north of Portland, Oregon. This city began receiving complaints regarding the constitutional limits of a religious display on public property. The complaints made to “the zombie city's leadership," were well-founded and the Nativity scene was a religious display could not be erected on public property. Even if public funds were not used. The mayor and city council consulted a federal attorney who said "yes," and according to his understanding, the constitutional limits of spending public money on such are not allowed. In fact, in 1989, the Supreme Court had in several major cases and ruled the First Amendment's establishment clause was specifically around nativity scenes. This was the case of The County of Allegheny versus the ACLU, in which the Supreme Court ruled that a Nativity scene violated the establishment clause. Thus, the government ruled Christmas is some sort of phenomenon, suggesting the people of America praise God for the birth of Jesus Christ on their own land. The Nativity scene is the symbol of Christmas, an important piece of evidence the enemy wants erased.

Christmas is a lot more than just a Nativity scene. It has massive implications here on Earth. The return of space transmissions with God and his chosen Messiah creates large-scale intelligence advancement; it will solve all our problems, cure diseases, and end all wars. It creates an unbreakable economy and makes life on Earth heavenly. All we have to do is receive the message and stop the activity of the enemy. If Christmas does not occur, none of this happens. The underlying damning forces of the enemy are to erase the concept of Christmas from everyone's minds, so earth remains isolated.

Based on our orbit positions, Christmas starts around the winter solstice and ends during the spring equinox with Easter. This adds a very critical time dimension element to communicating with God. Mass communication occurs in a concentrated form during this space position. Between Christmas and Easter is when the space transmission occurs. This is the perfect "time" in space positioning. Christmas is the start point for space communication Christ. At Christmas space communication begins at Easter it ends.

The book takes a realistic approach to apocalyptic events occurring over the last 20 years, focusing on evidence-based connections between biblical text and current events. ZAT covers a wide range of conspiracy theory subject matters.
