All you can Ask, Hope and Think.

Jesus talked a lot about prayer, and we know he often spent all night praying. So, we know it is something that is important to him and to our life. It is even written that he ever intercedes for us and prays for the ones who will come to him because of our faith. John 17:1-26 NKJV. I'm sure by now you understand a little about prayer, you have heard sermons and read books. You have your own list of answered prayers, I also know you have a list of unanswered prayers which is probably longer. So, prayer is something we all wrestle with, have experience with and know something about. When I first came to the Lord and learned that we can pray and ask God for help with everything in our lives, every area. I was so amazed and happy because I had always relied on myself and never asked anybody for help. So, to have God, the Lord of the Universe on my side to help was so amazing. I would pray for everything, pray for everyone and I had no doubt that my Father heard me. I had such a conversion that turned my life around, how could I not believe it!

So, you can imagine how stunned I was one day, when a seasoned believer said 'I was on my honeymoon period, and it would pass'. I was so shocked she could think like that, how could she say such a thing? How did she lose her zeal? Little did I know that years later I would be so unsure of praying and filled with doubt myself, I lost my zeal! I honestly told the Lord; I don't know if I can ever believe again in prayer as I once did. Everything I knew was so shaken; I didn't think I could build my most holy faith back up again. I was still walking with my Lord and loved God. Where could I go? For he is The Way, The Truth and The Light. Nothing, not even the worst season in my life, a seven-year season, could turn me away from this Light. For the Light shone in the darkness and I comprehended it.

Back in my early rebirth days, I tell you, I would've laid hands on the dead and expected them to rise. 'God would provide' was my motto, 'God is able' I would declare without a shadow of doubt. I can say I was even a bit boastful about it. A typical new convert shouting from the rooftops. I did see miraculous things happen for sure, healings in my life and friends. Every situation turned around; nothing happened that prayer didn't answer. I was fully persuaded, God is love, God is real and answers prayers period. So, what happened?

When I went through my dark knight things looked very different, my prayers didn't seem to get answered the way they used to. I felt like the lights went out and God stopped listening. I looked and felt smitten and afflicted by God, abandoned, even forsaken. I was even so ashamed to say I was a child of God for fear of people laughing at the state of my life. How can you say you are in the Light when your life looks like this (is what I imagined people would and were saying, and some questioned for sure) Acquaintances who lived in all manner of ways, followers of all different spiritual paths, we're so happy and flourishing. But my life was a mess. What did I do? What went wrong? Sickness came in and this time I couldn't rebuke it away like before, poverty surrounded me, and I couldn't understand why God did not provide for me and my family. I became so discouraged and confused. Nothing could change or stop what was unfolding. No amount of praying, fasting, quoting scripture at it. I couldn't even enter the doors of churches because I just couldn't play happy go lucky Christian anymore. Plus, it wasn't helping. The only advice was surrender to God's Will or its God's will for you to be here. You're in sin, just believe and listen to happy sermons. Think positively, it's the devil, just rebuke it, cast it out and plead the blood. On and on it went and nothing worked. I did all I knew to do but this didn't sit right with me. What I was going through, I could not believe that this was God's Wills for me and my family. My Divine parents would not do this to me. What I was experiencing went against everything Jesus came to deliver us from. So, what was it?

Hephzibah

I was unable to find anyone who was able to speak to what was happening to me or even help me. In fact they made me feel worse. The only thing I had was prayer and a willing heart to know the truth. It was time to batten down the hatches and go into the secret place. I knew there was something wrong and I was going to find out what it was. Because I knew this wasn't God's will for me or my family. I had to find out why this was happening.

Dearly beloved if I am talking to you right now, if you know the darkness, fear and anxiety I'm talking about. The confusion. Feeling utterly abandoned, you're doing all they told you to do. You just can't find the answer. You are reading book after book, listening to sermon after sermon. It's all frivolous and fluff and none of it works. You don't need another 21 days of this prayer or this program or even this bible study. You need real answers and real solutions.

I hope in the next few chapters you will find the answers to what is happening to you and get free. I will ask you to have an open mind from here on out when reading. I want you to think about what I'm saying and look back on your own life. You have a history with the Divine, take inventory and examine your walk now and before you came to the Light. Your prayers, your thoughts, actions now and before. This will play a very important role in your freedom and understanding. The fact that you are here with me now, I believe you are ready to come to understand and take responsibility for your life, your life in Christ.

There are a few things I must get you to do. I want you to stop listening to all your favourite preachers for a while, (it hasn't helped so far, so what do you have to lose?) you need to be able to hear for yourself and see what the Lord is going to show you. You really need to come away for a while. Take a breath and get your footing again. Examine what you believe and what you know to be true. You need to learn how to hear his voice again. I think we got caught up in a frenzy and became "Charismaniacs" (as I heard one preacher call it) We lost sight of who we are and what our walk with the Lord is all about. Too many programs and doctrines of men. Get-healed-quick schemes with high rates of return for a small investment of time and money. People running out and about for the Lord with no clue what they are really doing with no training. No understanding of who they are. No grounding in Christ. No Inner healing. Searching for their Significance in Doing instead of Being. As I have said, our walk is not about going out and bringing the world to Christ. I know this may come as a shock to hearing me say this. Because I know you have heard this every moment of your walk from every preacher, God saved you so you can go and bring the lost in. Dear unknown friend this is the Holy Spirit's job and there are people anointed to do this, gifted. Again, I know this is hard for you to hear but please believe me. Your Transformation into the likeness of Christ is what's most important right now, you must receive and walk in the fullness of Christ first. What profit is it if you gain the whole world for Christ but lose your soul? When the time comes you have no oil on your lamp? I know you're probably thinking of a verse:

2 Timothy 4:5 Do the work of an evangelist.

This is just a small segment of a verse, and we base our whole walk on this, everything we do and say revolves around this. That verse also said endure afflictions, do we make that the focus of our sermons, conversations, and daily activity? No. Do you see what I mean? For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven... Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 NKJV A lot of Believers are forever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. Let's go on a journey beloved and put aside childish things, so we can grow up in Christ and take responsibility for ourselves and our God given creative powers.

But the anointing which ye have received of him abided in you, and you need not that any man teaches you: but as the same anointing teaches you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 1 John 2:27 NKJV

Ask

Jesus entered Jerusalem... And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry: And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. And Jesus answered and said unto it, no man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it... And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursed is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Mark 11.KJV

Verily I say unto you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto the mountain, remove hence to yonder place and it shall remove, and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Matthew 17:20 KJV

Hephzibah

The apostles said unto Jesus, Lord increase our faith, and he said If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you might say unto the sycamine tree be thou plucked up by the root and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you. Luke 17:5-6 KJV

Have you ever heard the saying ‘they were asking for it’? I’m sure you have. Well Jesus was telling the twelve that all they had to do was say to the tree be moved or ask the tree to move. It would obey you. He is not telling them to pray to the Father in heaven or to say, ‘In Jesus Name’ but ‘You Say’ and ‘You Ask’. This might seem strange to you, but you can speak to things, for everything is living in the Natural World and that includes you. Your speech has power. You can speak life or death; you have the power. I’m sure you have heard this preached to you but just in case you say I’m getting all New Age, here are your scriptures:

The book of Proverbs:

21:23 He who guards his mouth and his tongue,
Guards his soul from troubles.

18:6-7 A fool’s lips bring strife, and his mouth calls for blows.

A fool’s mouth is his ruin, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

Deconstructing Prayer

18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

13:3 He that kept his mouth kept his life: but he that opened wide his lips shall have destruction.

12:18 There is that Spaeth like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

The book of Isaiah:

55:11 So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

50:4 The Lord God has given Me the tongue of disciples, That I may know how to sustain the weary one with a word.

Psalm 64:3 Who have sharpened their tongue like a sword. They aimed bitter speech as their arrow.

Matthew 15:10 After Jesus called the crowd to Him, He said to them, "Hear and understand. It is not what enters the mouth that defiles the man, but what proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man.

You, see? you have been doing this all your life. Before you came to know the Lord, it was working in you, it's still working in you. Now I'm not talking about the popular Name it and claim it doctrine here so just put that aside for now. Even though there is a measure of truth in it, belief is a part of this. I'm not talking about that. I'm talking about the things in your life that you don't want. The things, circumstances that 'you are asking for' things and situations you are unaware of their origins. They are showing up in your life and causing you great suffering and hardship. This my friend is not Redemptive suffering, it's a different kind altogether. The kind that nothing seems to be able to move. The power of negative speaking and thinking! (But God is Sovereign and can use this for your good) Beloved you have the divine power in you to speak to anything and it should obey you. You don't need to pray to our Father. This is a kind of praying you do without you even knowing it. Asking. Don't think that it's only prayer when you sit down in a posture or tag the name of Jesus on it. Whatever you Ask, Hope and Think. So, a lot of hardship in your life you are 'asked for it'. It's not God trying to deal with you or the devil attacking you. You are asking every day for all sorts of things that are coming into your life.

'You are doing it to yourself'

So, first things first, you must understand this one thing moving forward and that is: You are doing this to yourself.

Stop right here and look at ‘that thing’ in your life right now that isn’t moving and say ‘I am doing this to myself. Selah. I know you’re probably saying, I didn’t ask for this sickness or hardship in my life. Are you crazy? Who would ask for such a thing? Exactly, who knowingly would ask!

If you look at what is happening and be very honest, look back even a few years and you will see how you brought this thing into your life. You were unconscious of it at the time, you were unaware. If you are honest with yourself, you will see. You said this, you’ve always said this. You also think about it a lot. But I didn’t mean it! I was joking. It doesn’t matter beloved, the more spiritual you become the more you must guard your mouth and your thoughts. Therefore, Paul gave this advice:

Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honourable, whatever things are right, whatever things are pure, whatever things are pleasing, whatever things are commendable, if there is any excellence of character and if anything, praiseworthy, think about these things. And the things which you have learned and received and heard about and seen in me, practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. Philippians 4:8-9

Romans 8:5-6 For those who live according to the flesh set their mind /thoughts on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds/thoughts on the things of the Spirit. For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace.

2 Corinthians 10:5... take every thought captive to obey Christ

Romans 12:12 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Ok, let's test and discern if this 'Thing' is the will of God. Is it good, acceptable, and Perfect? Or does it go against all God's promises? If yes, then you need to renew your mind / thinking. Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. If you are thinking it, you are speaking it.

For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Jeremiah 29:11

We are made in the likeness of God; we can speak worlds into existence. Now the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit have been protecting you and delivering you out of these crazy things you have created. But the time has come when they will no longer leave you unconscious to your asking. You must learn and take control, if you are to be trusted with the power of the Holy Spirit. I have much to tell you, but you can't bear it, Jesus said but now it's time. This is a hard truth, I know. I had to learn it as well. This is something you will have to really ponder and search your heart to see the truth of it. But if you can receive it, it will set you free 'Selah'

You will see how you are creating your own suffering. In your own imagination, deep from within your subconscious mind comes your own creations. You are so far removed from yourself, that you don't recognize they are coming from you. If you would get to know yourself and see all those unbalanced forces within you. You would know, its unbalanced forces that are but evil.

There is a suffering unto purification, when we are tried as gold is tried. This is the purification of the soul. But most of the time we are experiencing our own self sabotaging desires. We are not cursed but following a pattern that was instilled in us at a very young age. It doesn't always have to be negative. Some people were conditioned in a beautiful way, and seem to sail smoothly through life, as if favoured and highly blessed. These people believe the Universe is a friendly place. That God is good and all loving. Be it unto you according as you believe. "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he." But most of us are dealing with negative thoughts and speech habits. Negative ideas of the World, of the Self and your future. It comes from our woundedness and our fear. When these unconscious speaking and thoughts manifest in our lives we are usually shocked, taken back and look for all sorts of reasons outside of ourselves as to the cause. Because Cause and Effect has a time delay, therefore it can be hard to find the cause of an event without deep investigation within.

We know it is God's will for you to become fully awake and aware, to do what you love and bring you joy. That you will come to the knowledge of yourself, all of yourself. The hidden inward parts, the ones that lurk in the shadows. To understand the mechanisms of the mind and how you are creating (praying) all the time. Just mostly in the negative. Remember Jesus said whatsoever you Ask, Hope or Think. So, speaking and asking are forms of prayer and we don't need to ask the Father or Jesus to do this for Us. Remember the story of the woman with the issue of blood.

Mark 5:27 -30 When she heard about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind him and touched his cloak, for she was saying (to herself) "If I touch just his clothing, I will be healed!" And immediately her haemorrhage stopped, and she realised in her body that she was healed of her suffering. And immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from himself, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothing?"

Jesus didn't answer that prayer in the way we know prayer to be answered. He perceived power had gone out from him. The Father didn't answer it either. Now can you imagine the intensity within her when she said this to herself. Now think of areas in your life where you say to yourself with just as much intensity things that pertain to death? really stop right now and seriously look at it. What's happening with you right now that is very painful? if you are honest, you will see you said this, you are always saying this. You need to stop. The Lord has kept you and delivered you from all sorts of stuff, we can't even imagine the things that want to manifest in our lives daily but, there is a but, he will let this manifest so you can see and learn what YOU are doing to yourself. Not him, Not the Father, not even the devil is doing this. This is the reason it won't go away. If you are finding it hard to accept this truth, just stop a while. Take a walk-in nature if you can and let the Holy Spirit show you where it comes from and how it is working on you. This is not to condemn you, dear unknown friend. Know the truth and the truth will set you free, the truth about yourself. We not only do this to ourselves, but we do it to our kids, friends, and family members. Life and death are in the power of the tongue. If you genuinely want to be a minister of God you must accept this truth, that you are doing this to yourself.

Before we move on, I really want you to sit with this truth for a while. Beloved you really must shut out all the noise from your life. All the other voices that we listen to all day. (Not your kids etc) Shut down everything, it will all be there when you get back and trust me you won't miss anything. Nothing will fall apart if you're not there, in fact your life is falling apart because you are not there at the centre of yourself. I am going to give you some helpful suggestions, ones I know work as I have used them. Only listen to instrumental music for a while, I would even suggest listening to 432Hz sounds (432 Hz tuning releases trapped energy and takes you into a beautiful state, where relaxation is natural) Cancel all activities, except the everyday family stuff. Just tell folks you are taking some time out; they don't have to know why. If they are respectful and healthy relationships, they will understand. (If you are in the dark night, you probably don't have many left) Close down all social media apps, yes! Especially any preacher apps. I truly believe you have heard enough word for the day. Come away for a while with your Beloved, he is calling you sister. It is time to do the deep inner work. Trust that you can hear your Lord, the Holy Spirit will lead you, and show you the areas that need to be examined. I personally will advise some, if not all, to get some counselling or psychological help during this time. Really be open to the Holy Spirit, our great counsellor and comforter and you will be led to the right person.

We are on a very deep spiritual journey; a very powerful and profound transformation is happening within you. One that leads us back to our humanity, that retrieves our Souls and ultimately transforms us into the image of Christ. It's a journey of a lifetime and one that takes place within us. It's not out there somewhere, the Kingdom of God is within you. We must take the journey within, there is no other way to get there, we must walk through the dark corridors of our mind and open the doors that are shut that keep the Light out. It won't be easy or painless, but it will be worth it, oh so worth it dear sister and brother., Weeping may endure for a night... the long dark night of the soul. It is not something modern popular Christianity promotes from its pulpit. It's not something you can rebuke away or pray away. It is part of the disciple's journey, and we are not alone on it, we have a great cloud of witness, ministering angels and the Lord by our side, for he sticks closer than a brother. Our elder brother has taken the journey and can guide us on our way. So do not fear little ones for it is the Fathers good pleasure to give you the Kingdom.

“Never give up prayer, and should you find dryness and difficulty, persevere in it for this very reason. God often desires to see what love your soul has, and love is not tried by ease and satisfaction.”

John of the Cross

"Trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be." Teresa of Avila

Hope and Think

Now we will look at Hoping and thinking or intend, except all equate. This also is a form of prayer. When Jesus was talking about belief, he wasn't talking about believing in Himself or the Father, but You are believing. If You believe, be it unto You according as You believe. It's You who is doing the believing, using that measure of Faith that the Father has given all humankind.

To believe is to have faith, faith that whatever you say, set your heart to do and whatever you imagine or think to do, it shall come to pass. You have heard it said 'thoughts are things' 'Well there is truth in this. Remember Jesus said whatsoever you say, believing, you shall have it. We believe all sorts of things that are harmful to us and a lot of times we don't believe the good can come so easily to us. We have a hard time believing that we are heard when we pray. And have more faith in the negative, we may say something positive, and faith filled with our mouth but believe in our heart something different. If you believe you are in the midst of the dark night right now. You feel you are in the wilderness of your soul. A dry and barren place, where darkness abides, then you are in the Dark Night. Beloved, it is a privilege to be here, believe me.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be weary and faint in your minds. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which spake unto you as unto children, my son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: For whom the Lord loveth he chastened, and scourged every son whom he received. If ye endure chastening, God dealt with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chastened not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons... Now all discipline seems for the moment not to be joyful but painful, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who are trained by it. Hebrew 12 :1-11

When you come out and you will, even though in the middle of that night it feels like it will never end. You will be a different person, a lot more enlightened and freer within. Now in this place it seems like your prayers are not being heard and this is very troubling. You are praying and fasting for this darkness to be lifted, you are doing all that you were taught. Rebuking the devil, tithing, reading your bible and praying. What's wrong, am I in sin? Your friends will probably tell you; you are. Or usually, that you don't have faith, just plead the blood and believe. Dear friend, as you know by now this is not working. Why? Because it is not God or the Devil doing this to you. The Spirit of the Lord has set up boundaries around you in this place and hermetically sealed you. You will not be getting out anytime soon. Please take a deep breath right now... this could take 3, 7 or 10 years to pass through. I know you don't want to hear this; I owe you the truth. It can depend on how much needs to be brought to the light from within and how open you are for the change. It took me 7 years. Dear unknown friend, I tell you I would never want to go through that again, but I wouldn't change or lose a day of it. I would however change how I went through it, by not kicking and screaming. At least now you can understand what I didn't know, so you can go through it a bit more smoothly than I did.

What is really happening right now is that you are meeting your deep inner creator. Your shadow, who has that measure of Faith at its disposal. This is the part of you, that even though you are praying for your best, moving forward with great plans, and believing in God's promises for your life. This inside of you is hindering you, sabotaging you. This part of you is more in touch with that Divine force of Faith. Therefore, you may want something with your conscious mind, your logical mind but this side won't let it happen. Here is where all your true hidden beliefs are. You are sealed. You can't pray away what you're going through, you can't seem to move house or get a new job. You're stuck, hedged in. The Spirit isn't going to let you go until you understand the inner workings of your mind and the Universal Mind, the Mind of God.

You will learn how you can stop creating the suffering you are experiencing and bringing upon others. Know that we have a High Priest, a great counsellor who will guide us through to the other side. Have you found your life to be one big paradox? you are living your dream and a nightmare at the same time. You might have dealt with a lot of things in your life. Overcome addictions, afflictions, gotten free from abusive relationships. You might have finally found what it is you love and want to spend the rest of your life doing. Then bang, someone turned the lights off and all hell broke loose in your life, By the grace of God, all you have imagined has come upon you. It has come at once, a quick work. Things that might have taken years to manifest are now showing up in rapid fire. As soon as you are done with one another shows up. You probably have dealt with a measure of your flesh. You probably have been crucifying your flesh, purifying yourself. Working on those outward issues. Now Dearly Beloved, you are going to be placed in the tomb. After Yeshua was crucified, he was buried and descended into Hell to conquer Death, Hell and the Grave. We don't think much about this, we tend to talk of his crucifixion and Resurrection but not about the time He spent in Hell. Taking Captivity Captive. Liberating us from the effects of sin and the Fall. This dearly beloved is what is happening within you. You must descend and take captivity Captive. As it is written:

Casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2

Corinthians 10:5

It is these unconscious thoughts and actions that create a tremendous amount of suffering in your life. You must find the cause and effect in everything. The Spirit will lead you and guide you. I mention once again, some may need to seek professional help at this time. A psychotherapist or counsellor to help you navigate these murky waters. Know this one thing, it is people who have made significant progress on the path of return that enter this stage, so be of good cheer sister you are still in the Light.

In order to fully enter the things that you were created for you must deal with these powerful destructive forces within yourself. These thoughts you are unaware of, the things you are hoping for or fear. Worry is a form of thinking about the worst possible outcome. You expect things to go wrong more than you hope for the good. You are just not aware of your own mind. Test this out and at random times stop and ask yourself what you were thinking of and see if you can recall. If your mood changes, look at what thought just came into your mind. We can be so passive when it comes to our mind and our thinking. I will talk later about Thought Forms as this will give you a good understanding of how we create suffering in our own life's. Problems you are causing that keep sabotaging and alienating you from life, joy, prosperity, healing and the peace of God. It's you that keeps you from the Kingdom. I understand powers of Darkness exist, please, once again, don't get me wrong. We will look at them later. But for the most part of your life, it's your own thoughts and beliefs that afflict you. Your Vain imaginations not God or the Devil. For whatever a man thinketh in his heart, he is, he will be and sooner or later he will have. This is the power that works through the measure of Faith that all men have. If it can be conceived it can be achieved, for nothing will be restrained from them, whether good or evil.

Once you have taken captive these negative thoughts for you must do this work. This cannot be done for you; they cannot be rebuked away. People cannot lay hands on you to remove them, you must take hold of them and allow Yeshua to heal the broken and fearful inward parts of yourself. After this work is done, your creations will no longer cause you suffering or keep you from all that Christ came to give you. You will hopefully, Lord willing enter Resurrection life. As it is written:

Whatever things are true, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure and lovely. Whatsoever things are of good report if there be any virtue and praise in them, think on these things. Philippians 4:8 KJV (For surely, they shall come to pass.)

The Holy Spirit will lead you, please be open minded at this stage as there are many people out there who can help you. Once you have understanding and the Light shines on the problem, that my friend is half the battle. You do have the victory, yours is the victorious life. You must walk that out, for the Kingdom of heaven suffered violence and the violent take it by force. It comes through prayer, surrender and understanding. Know the truth and the truth will set you free, the truth about yourself and the nature of reality.

Have you ever felt alone in your journey of faith, confused by the silence of God? No victory in sight. You have done everything they told you to do but it's not working? You know in your hearth; this can't possibly be Gods Will for me.
