CHAPTER 2: MEMPHIS BBQ, ELVIS AND ME!

When I got to Memphis, I wore my blue suede shoes.
It's the home of Elvis and the Delta Blues!

My first stop, I'm sure you knew,
Was Eddie's Famous Memphis Barbeque!

Barbequed ribs with sauce so sweet,
It'll grab you by the tongue and say "C'mon, let's eat!"

Add some butter beans and cornbread you must,
So great you'll think it's sprinkled with magic dust!

Graceland's my first stop, once I have my fill.
It's the home of the King and his Coupe d'Ville.

They've got tons of Elvis Presley's great costumes
And enough gold records to fill many rooms.

When you get to Memphis, make sure you walk on Beale.
Nothing else gives you that bluesy, happy feel.

And by all means, make a stop at St Jude.
It's the official charity of this travelin' dude.

I love you, Memphis and now it's time to move on.
We're heading east toward Tennessee's mountains!

Come on along, let's hop in the truck.
Sure enough, stick with Austin and you're surely in luck.
