Chapter 10

Glory of God

Then he led me to the east gate, where the glory of Israel's God was coming in from the east. Its sound was like the sound of a mighty flood, and the earth was lit up with His glory. Ezekiel 43: 1-2

On Monday March 30, 2020 I was standing in front of the kitchen window. The window faces the east. Suddenly, I saw a thick, dark, orange and yellow cloud that stretched across the north and south as far as my eyes could see. The cloud became darker orange as time passed by. It was one of the prettiest orange and yellow clouds I ever saw. I can barely describe it because it was so beautiful. It was radiant and orange. It was evenly spread, level, smooth in the middle, flawless and orange. It lasted approximately ten minutes and then it vanished. I have never seen anything like this. No one saw it except me. It was something to see! I called my friend to verify if she saw it. She replied, "No." Something inside my soul changed that day. It is difficult to express, but I was changed.
