Timothy. Timothy was behind the fox as they went up the fork road to find the large cave.

"We are at the fork road, and there is the large cave," said the fox.

Timothy walked up to the cave opening and looked inside. "It is very dark inside. How would I know where I am going?"

The fox stepped before Timothy, "No problem, I have keen eyes in the dark. Hold onto my tail, and I will guide you to Samuel and your puppy." Timothy paused for a second or two and took the fox's tail. They went inside the dark cave to find Samuel and Blacky.

The farther they walked into the cave, the darker it got, and the fox pulled his tail away from Timothy's hand. Timothy yelled to the fox, "Where are you? I cannot see
