Phillip zoomed out again. “Nana, why did they build the wall so long?”

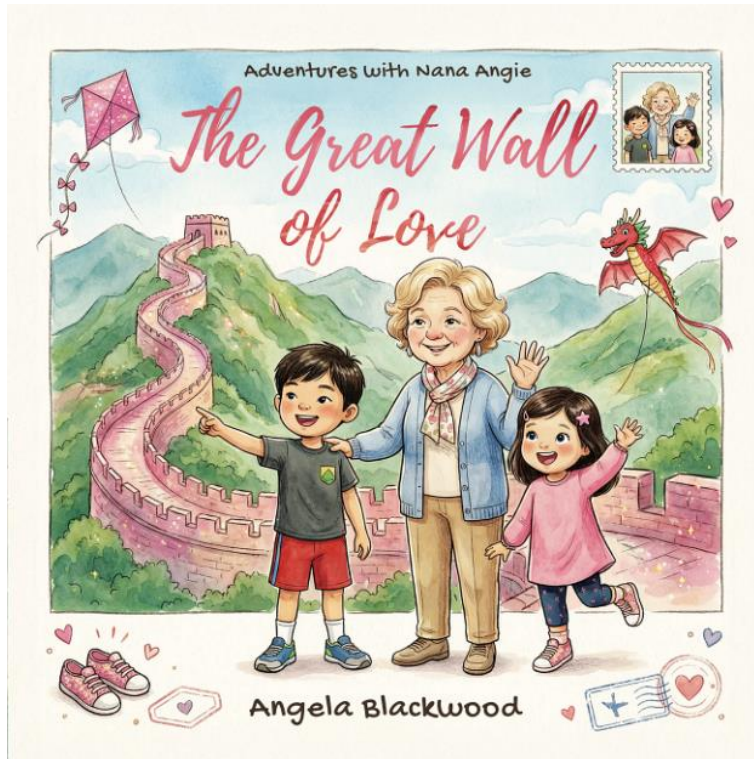

Nana said, “To help keep people safe. And it shows what people can do when they work together. The wall was not built by one person. Many hands worked for a long, long time.”

Maddie’s eyes went wide. “So many hands?”

“Yes,” Nana said. “Soldiers, farmers, and builders worked on it. Even families helped in small ways.”

Phillip nodded. "So, it is like...teamwork."
"Exactly," Nana said. "And our family uses teamwork, too, so we can stay close, even when we are far apart."
Maddie leaned close to the camera. "Like a wall of love?"
Nana's eyes twinkled. "Yes, my darling. A Wall of Love."
