CHAPTER ONE

SUN SIGNS

Our “Sun Sign” means the zodiac sign in which the sun was present at the moment of our birth, in our place of birth. It represents what we want to be, not necessarily who we are. It can be best described as our Ego self. It represents characteristics of our personality. By knowing a man’s Sun sign, you can discover how to deal with his Ego self.

The Sun, Moon and Venus

THE RAM

March 21 – April 19

THE ARIES MAN

Most Compatible: Libra, Leo & Sagittarius

Least Compatible: Cancer (too moody)

Fire Sign: This man is primarily energetic, enthusiastic and impulsive (fiery). Aries

This guy likes to be in charge, but he also needs a lot of confirmation with just enough balance. The Aries man doesn't want you to tell him how great he is all the time; he wants approval periodically.

He is usually attracted to computers and sports and he likes to use his hands.

Remember, he's the "baby" of the zodiac which means he likes to be first.

His personality has energy, a bit of ego and he is a flirt.

He will look you straight in the eye and not be afraid to tell you what he feels. You're his friend, aren't you? You like him, don't you? If your answer is no, he won't show it outwardly, but be sure he will be crying on the inside. He can't stand it if you don't like him. He'll never show his emotions on the surface if he can help it. If you see him openly weeping, you can be certain that he's been cut to the very soul in some way. Aries would rather be caught dead than be caught weak and some of them literally risk the former, to avoid the latter.

The Sun, Moon and Venus

When you want to get something done, the best way to accomplish this is to barter. The Aries man will respond better when you do something for him first; then he feels the need to outdo you.

If you keep him happy intimately, you will have his undivided attention. Problems can arise when you get frustrated because you feel that sex is all he thinks about. Where imbalance comes into play in a relationship with Aries, is when the partner starts to feel overwhelmed with being an “object of desire” and not an emotional partner. It is important to not let the relationship start off all physical. Balance it from the beginning and things will go smoothly in the long term.

Aries likes you to rub his ears. This will calm him down.

Don't worry about having to get too close to his family members, as he would rather you put him first at all times.

If you are with an Aries man who has a child with someone else, you may run into problems. He has a lot of issues with letting go of the mother of his children...unless, of course, you have a child with him. It's all about competition in this relationship.

Seduce Aries by surprising him with a most adventurous and physical workout. For him, sex is a physical workout, too.

A Simple Guide on How to Get the Most Out of Your Man

These guys do get married, but the easiest way to get them is to be what they are looking for. If you fit the plan, you'll know soon enough – a rush from this guy is hard to miss. If you have to show him that you're the right one, do a little challenging – he has trouble turning down a dare. Let's face it...he's a Fire sign and can be ignited.

Keep in mind that his pushy, dashing, confident ways need the fuel of constant encouragement. Here's the secret elixir that gets Aries to the altar...Are you ready? Common sense! He won't tell you, but he seeks a stable and sensible mate. Are you the one?

CHAPTER TWO

MOON SIGNS

Our Moon Sign represents our “emotional” self. This is the primal subconscious self. This is an important aspect for you to know to obtain closeness emotionally. By knowing a man’s Moon sign, you can get in touch with his emotional side.

MOON in ARIES: This guy has fiery responses. He is quick to react and likes to be in control.

He has a need for independence and action. He likes to feel he is the one who motivated you in some way. One way to catch his attention is to make sure he knows how he helped you to accomplish something in your life. An example would be telling him that he turned you on to something new such as a sport, a hobby, or even an emotion will make him feel connected to you, because he was responsible for it.

He feels safe when there is something going on at all times. Guys with an Aries moon tend to be attracted to “crisis”. Therefore, he will be more attracted to a woman who may have something critical going on in her life.

There is a lack of patience in this relationship and he might have that “I gotta know now!” attitude. This can get on your nerves. The catch here is that you can capture his attention more by keeping him in that “gotta know” mode. It will add fire to the relationship.

He is easily frustrated or irritated with others. His patience is low so if he snaps at you, don't take it personally. He doesn't often think when he speaks. His intention isn't usually to hurt your feelings. His tongue can be fueled faster than his mind. The positive side to this is that he is very expressive and can be generous with compliments. I call this the Moon sign that has bipolar traits. One moment he can be Mr. Happy and the next Mr. Angry. If you don't like to be with a guy whose moods change frequently, then this is not the guy for you.

He loves to be the protector in the relationship and doesn't depend on his partner emotionally...unless, of course, he can't figure you out. Then he will spend lots of time on you.

If you would like to help him de-stress, do something physical with him like jogging or kickboxing. Another suggestion is to hop into bed and keep him happy. He loves physical stimulation!

To turn him on, turn the lights out and let his imagination "wonder" what you might kiss next.

Some Famous People with Moon in Aries

Kevin Spacey, Luciano Pavarotti, Andy Warhol, John Voight, Bill Gates and Alan Alda.

CHAPTER THREE

VENUS SIGNS

Venus represents the role we take in relationships and career. Love, getting to know another person, career, mating, socialization and relationship are found in Venus. We act like this sign when we are involved in personal relationships and making choices in our career. Knowing a man's Venus allows you to tap into the part of him that reacts to relationships and career, giving you a better understanding of how to interact with him.

VENUS in ARIES

Venus in Aries' normal softness is touched by an aggressive urge. He goes right after his mate.

He expects spontaneity and likes a good sense of humor. He can be very sensitive if you don't like his humor. He likes to act childlike and is fun-loving. He is attracted to a woman who is energetic and always on the go. He gets turned off by a stuffy woman. He would rather have one who acts younger, giggles and likes to play.

He is addicted to conquest. In order to keep the relationship fresh, you must provide him with constant stimulation. Be very direct and open with him. He thrives on competition. Don't let him start feeling like things are the same, or he will get bored and move on. The word here is "COMPETE". Make him feel like he needs to compete for your attention.

He can be impatient and careless sometimes. He often skips over details making you feel that he didn't put much into the time you spend together. Not surprisingly, early marriages are common with Venus in Aries because he didn't take time to get to know if his partner's wants are the same as his.

A Simple Guide on How to Get the Most Out of Your Man

He can hurt your feelings by not thinking when he says things. My advice to you: If you are sensitive and don't like big egos, this won't work for you.

Some Famous People with Venus in Aries

George Clooney, Robert Downey Jr., Vince Vaughn, Shaquille O'Neal, Harry Houdini and Jack Nicholson.
