Chapter 1 – Two Very Powerful Words

Did you know there are two words in the English language that if put together and used everyday are so powerful that your life can be changed dramatically, practically overnight. Many people have used these two magic or secret words and have gone on to amass great wealth for themselves.

What are these two magic or secret words? I'll tell you that in a minute. Before I spill my guts to you, I want you to know something first.

In order for you to get what you want or more of what you want out of life, you must be willing to humble yourself and agree to do what those who have become successful before you did and said. Every single one of those who were successful in life knew these two magic words and practiced saying them, either out loud, or in secret. But they made it a ritual to say these words everyday.

Harry Husted

Talk to any person in the world who has followed in the footsteps of those who stated these two words, and you will find they too knew what it took to become successful. They were not afraid to say the two magic words every single time they had a chance to do so.

So what are the two magic words already? Hold on to your hats because I am about to reveal to you what those two magic words are and when I tell you, you will be amazed beyond what words will be able to say. You may be held speechless for a few seconds as you gather your thoughts.

The two magic words that all the successful people say every day are "thank You." That's right. They say "thank you" everyday of their existence. Why do they say the two words "thank you"? This is because these two words have a lot of power, especially as far as the Universe is concerned.

Think about this important point. When you say "thank you," you are in fact telling the

Insider Secrets to Wealth and Prosperity

Universe you are grateful for what you have. You are relaying the message to the Universe that you are very happy and grateful for what the Universe has given you. And by acting in harmony with your gratitude, the Universe responds by saying, "Well if you are grateful for what you have, then you are ready for more of what you have and even more than that." Do you see what I am talking about here? By simply saying "thank you," you are in fact telling the Universe you are grateful. You are showing gratitude for what you have and reflect this every time you say those two words.

By showing the Universe you are grateful for what you have; more will be given to you. Ask yourself these questions: Are you grateful for what you have? Do you state to the Universe how grateful you are for what you have as soon as you get up in the morning? Your answers determine whether you get what you want out of life or not.

If you show gratitude, you also show appreciation for the things you have, and are thankful that God gave those things to you. By acknowledging to the Universe you are glad you have the things you obtained, you can speed your growth and success faster than you normally would. This is because by you telling the Universe that you appreciate everything you have, no matter how small or insignificant those things may be, you are telling the Universe that you are accepting of them and you are open to receiving, and will receive more.

On the other hand, if you act like you are not grateful for what you have, and you complain about your life, the Universe will look at that and will realize you aren't receptive to anything else because you can't accept what you have already. You are in fact, telling the Universe that you don't deserve what you have and therefore shouldn't get anything else.

But, if you are grateful for what you have, even if you only have so little, you are showing the Universe of your acceptance, and you will get more.

By showing gratitude, you are drawing closer to God or to the Universe, depending on how you view it. By drawing closer to the source of all creation, or the Infinite Being, or Ultimate Power, you are getting closer to the source of all power. This means you have the ability to tap into that source any time you want.

Therefore, the more grateful you are, the closer you get to that source, and this means the more you get in return. Plus, by showing gratitude, you also are benefited in another way. You are actually putting yourself in the frame of mind of not feeling inadequate or feeling that God or the Infinite Source has abandoned you. By showing gratitude, you can actually think more abundantly than you may have before. This is why obeying the law of gratitude is so important.

As you show gratitude, more things come to you. If you start losing gratitude, you will start losing what you have. Always remember that gratitude is very powerful. It has changed the lives of many people. Those who showed it ended up blessed with abundance. Those who did not show it lost everything they had.

Every morning when you get up, before you even start your day, you should close your eyes and say "thank you" to God or to your higher power, for everything you have in your life, no matter how small it may be. By doing this, you are proving that you deserve more of what you want and you will get it.

For those who wonder why they do not get what they want out of life, there are basically five reasons that cause this. These five reasons all center on what they think. These five reasons are:

Supply: There are people who think or wonder if there is enough to go around for everyone. They get concerned and as a result, they don't believe there is anything for them, so they stop believing and stop showing gratitude.

Insider Secrets to Wealth and Prosperity

This is one of the biggest mistakes they can make. The Universe is forever. It is one continuous mass of energy. By being this continuous mass, this means that the Universe is endless. What happens when you have an endless supply? See what I mean. So never think there is never enough for there will always be enough for everyone.

Resistance: Unfortunately, people have resisted change for years. What people don't understand they resist. Because of this, people don't appreciate what they have. They complain and bicker about what they have instead of being grateful. People have the attitude that whatever happened in their lives happened. They had no control over it. Because of this belief, they limit themselves to what they actually can get in life. This kind of thinking can be reversed but it takes time. If you think in reverse of this and believe you really deserve more, you will get more.

Dissatisfaction: In the world, people seem to link being happy with having abundance. However, there is a difference. You see when you are satisfied; you are willing to accept what you have. You can be satisfied without being grateful. Whatever happens to you, you don't challenge it. Being happy on the other hand is being in a state of joy or gratitude. If you act on being satisfied, you are actually limiting yourself to what you could have. This is why you need to be happy and satisfied now. By being happy and satisfied, you line yourself up for abundance. Another way to say this is that if you are satisfied, you are in the limited state, but if you are happy to, your happiness will counter the influence of satisfaction and trigger a different energy stream to the Universe. It is like having ammonia and water. Ammonia by itself is very strong and can kill if you inhale its vapors. But when you mix water to it, the water mixes with the chemicals in the ammonia, dilutes it, and reduces its strength. The new mixture still can clean well; it just won't have the potency it had before. That is the same with satisfaction and happiness. By having satisfaction you have limited abilities, but when you add happiness, you are mixing the two and altering the state and energy strength to create a new energy stream.

Harry Husted

Forgiveness: In order for your gratitude to work, you must show forgiveness to yourself and to others. I know this is very hard to do, especially if you had someone do something very serious against you. But by showing forgiveness, you are being godly in a way and this opens the door to greater good for you. The best way to overcome any sadness in your life, is by simply saying to the Universe that you forgive the person and wish to pray that the person finds God in his/her life and becomes a better person as a result. Forgiveness is not just for others. You also have to learn to forgive yourself for what you do to your own person, or what you did to others. If you can truly look at yourself in the mirror and say you love yourself, you are on your way to a wonderful life.

Harry Husted

No thinking: As soon as a thought comes in their head, people want to dismiss it. They don't want to take that thought, process it, and let their thoughts produce results. The only way to win in life, you must think, process, and act on your thoughts.

As explained above, showing gratitude is one of the most important, if not the most important of all the laws you need to perform each day. Don't be naive about what the words "thank you" can do for you. They are very powerful as I mentioned above and can literally change your state in a second. Don't think so. Try it and see if you don't find your state or emotional level change when you use those two magic words. I know that when I say thank you to someone for something they did for me or gave me, I feel so good inside. I feel deserving of it and respond accordingly. It lifts my spirits and opens me up to receive even more. So don't be shy or ill-mannered by not saying those two words. They can literally change your life to some degree.

Do you know you are made of energy? Your brain creates energy every second. Since your brain is also your mind, that means your mind has power. Why not use that power to live your best life now?
