

I Want to Be a Pig

Scott Henderson

I Want to Be a Pig is a delightful compilation of humorous and thoughtful juvenile poems with accompanying drawings. The book was inspired by the author's daughter, who at the age of three announced that she wanted to be a pig when she grew up because they were pink, her favorite color. The book has one hundred and sixteen pages with sixty three poems, many with drawings by the author.

Upside Down

Sometimes I feel upside down,
Always smiling when I frown.
I'm so happy when I'm sad,
As good as gold when I'm bad.
Often inside when I'm out,
Very quiet when I shout.
Full of life when I'm just dead,
Way behind when I'm ahead.
Wide awake when I'm asleep,
Give away things that I keep.
I cannot say what I just said,
The blood is rushing to my head!
