For U a gift:
To open and be present

*"It was still, and there was no breeze to distract me, so I was able to see the picture clearer —
a leaf in the shape of a heart."*

Mary Francis

HERE is a brief introduction to the work of author and photographer Mary Francis. In her book, she has integrated her photography and spirituality to enlighten, as well as her humour to entertain, as she attends to her own mundane affairs. Throughout Mary's book, she shares her experiences in short rhythms and inspirational thoughts. Welcoming and inviting is Mary, as she infuses her love with gentle encouragement to strengthen in her book HERE.

Stress is too much when too much is too late.
So, try and slow down to lengthen your fate
or continue to hurry if you'd rather not wait.

A time to create, a time to rejoice,
a time to unite our love with our voice.

A time to dance, a time to be still,
a time to let live and let die, if you will.
And time for all, don't question how,
just make it yours and take it now.

God's carpet is usually green
with a ceiling that's often blue,
and with pictures perfectly placed
and a door always opened for you.

MARY FRANCIS

There are two things in life we can count on.

One is constant change.

The other is constant love. Thank God for that.

~

Lending a hand is your first step to walking a mile in their shoes.

If you want the truth, look in their eyes not their mouth.

Those who don't GET what love is,
usually only GET more of what it isn't.

If you keep reaching for the stars,
one's likely to fall right in your lap.

Welcome to my store.
Feel free to take some ideas home,
but please DO come back to address.

Our magic doesn't stop as we age.
It's 'us' who stop believing it does.

Wow! Did you get a new car?
Or is that a new smile?
Very nice!
