CHAPTER 6

EARTH IN TRANSITION

Your planet is now in a series of changes. The earth has come through a multitude of changes since time began and what we see for you now is an opportunity to take responsibility for your brothers and sisters on the planet. What we see is a most propitious time in history.

The topic of peace is more than desisting from war. It pervades every aspect of your heart and soul, for there can be no peace unless it begins on an individual level and a daily basis. Peace begins at the time you arise in the morning and most assuredly begins with how you agree to pursue a given day.

As you arise in the morning, each of you looks upon your day in a certain way. In the first place, it is most important to know that as you awaken each day you agree to how the day will go. Do you agree that the day will be successful for you? Do you agree that you are God? Do you agree that you are energy? Most of all, do you agree that you are love? Or do you agree to be in terror of how things are going to go for you? World peace will not begin until all agree that their days are going to be peace filled.

What we see for humankind in the world of the future is a spiritual world. It is comprised of those who live in spiritual discernment and ethical behavior, who understand the nature of cause and effect, and that their thoughts, actions, words, deeds and feelings are what make up the body of the universe. What you put out is what you get back.

The world of personal empowerment, the world of personal peace, the world of tomorrow, is the world of spiritualized thinking. How you view yourself, how you agree to start the day, how you view your brothers and sisters, is how your world will be and how the world will be for those generations to come.

Do you view yourself as spiritual and part of nature or as spiritual sometimes and not spiritual at other times? Do you express the law of cause and effect effectively? Do you keep your thoughts, actions, words, deeds and feelings uplifted and make efforts to not be spiritually impoverished? This is your responsibility, a personal, individual responsibility that comes to you every day.

Live in right action and project thoughts of peace.

We are pouring peace onto the planet. Many of us who live in other dimensions have put our other duties aside to come to you, not only for this message, but at other times as well. We are surrounding the planet in light, love, and peace, and we do so with integrity and love.

Our purpose is to show you ways to individually develop yourselves so that your lives go forward more profitably, more successfully and more lovingly. At the same time, the planet is uplifted, the planet will be benefited, the plants, the flowers, the trees, the sun, will all be in harmony. What we are speaking of when we speak of the world of the future is harmony. Peace is the essence of a harmonious heart.

A harmonious heart is achieved through the daily activity of noticing how you are at each moment of your day. It is not only a heart that is love-filled, but one that lives by truth and is in touch with intuition. A harmonious heart listens to that side of yourself which is attuned and is connected with your guides and to that energy which is God. Listen to your intuition. As you arise in the morning, you will find that if you listen to intuition, your days will be employed for you and you will be in charge of each day.

World peace concerns being in charge of each day. World peace, in our view of the world, is a world in which each individual is responsible for cleansing his or her light. What does this mean? It means that you know you are of Spirit and of God, you know that you are love and energy, and you live from that truth.

YOUR GOOD

Peace is the framework that all your good hangs upon. Your good is always with you. It is never away from you. It is simply a matter of recognizing the nature of your own self, your own good. It is as if you open your eyes and at once realize that it has always been with you. But the effect of your thoughts can keep you from experiencing your good, which is right beside you. Many souls are just a step behind the vibration their good is on. This is why we teach you to meditate, to reflect and to let the color, which is yours alone, your personal color, come to you (Ref. "Living Life Radiantly").

Your good flows through you sequentially and as you are able to reach out and accept it. If you are in turmoil, conflict, fear and doubt, it cannot flow into you and peace is not resolved in your heart and soul. You may say, "I know some of these concepts, but it seems like a difficult task." What we speak to you of is making efforts in as conscious a way as you are able. We have not come to insist that you be peaceful overnight. We have come to talk to you of generations to come and to say that it is your individual responsibility to understand that what happens on your planet is collective. What happens on your planet speaks of what is in your consciousness... what is continuously and collectively going on inside you.

The world of tomorrow, with your participation, will be a world of spiritualized thinking. Spiritualized thinking has to do with how your life goes. Spiritualized thinking will understand the nature of cause and effect, that what you think, what you believe, and how you act, goes out into the Universe and returns to you abundantly.

We cannot emphasize enough that, if you are abundant and prolific in your positive thoughts and responsible for yourselves by being responsible for your thoughts, you will be growing into spiritual adulthood... that sense of being in charge of your life.

You will be growing into that aspect of yourself which knows that it is an aspect of God. You will be growing into that aspect of yourself that cleanses its light, raises its vibrations and, by exuding gracious light, allows those other lights on the planet to communicate, experiencing one another. The world of tomorrow, with integrity and responsibility, will be a light-filled planet. Spiritualize your thinking. See the God in others. Be responsible for your activities and thoughts.

If you are in harmony, you are listening to your intuition, you are at peace in your heart and there is peace around you, good can only come to you. That good comes to you in many forms, including financial success, right action and living on your planet in clean ways. Awaken to peace each day and agree to be responsible for yourselves.

Peace is available in a very casual way. You can reach out and bring yourself peace. It is not necessary for you to struggle through meditation. You are at a time in history where consciousness has an opportunity to greatly uplift itself and where your God self is more available to you than ever before... for many Masters are coming onto your planet to speak to you, to empower you and to offer you all blessings. Reach out and accept your peace, and know that you can do that daily. Know that you can view your personal color. Know that you can reach out and bring peace to you. It is a very simple activity. It is the activity of the heart.

Let us also speak to you of truth. Truth is at the basis of all. Truth stands alone. When you examine the lack of peace in your life it does not stand alone, and so you realize that it is man-made and not of God. Peace stands alone. Peace stands without discussion and without having to actually understand it. Peace can be experienced, it can be felt and it can be translated from one soul to another. So, live by your truth, live by the truth that you are uplifted, that you are light, that you are energy and that you are of God.

Live by your intuition. Does your intuition tell you to use strife and conflict? Does your intuition instruct you in negativity? It does not. Intuition stands for itself. Understand that what we speak of is spiritual in nature, not of the personality.

YOUR BODY

Understand that you are not encumbered by your body. Your body is simply a vehicle for you to encase your personality and ego and to allow you to move about on a given plane of action for learning about and experiencing God. What is important to understand is that you are not limited by your body. Your body is simply a matter of convenience to you. What goes on after death is your light, your energy, your frequency and vibration. The essence of your soul is your light, your connection with Spirit and your divinity. This is what we say is self-empowering, being in touch with that and letting that energy flow through you.

YOU ARE MULTI-DIMENSIONAL

The world of tomorrow lives by intuition. Intuition and creativity are greatly connected. The world of tomorrow is viewed as much more purposeful. Each of you is psychic, each of you is spiritual and each of you possesses a vast creativity of the soul. Each of you contains that vastness that you cannot perceive. Know that you are multifaceted, not one-dimensional. So many of you experience your lives as one-dimensional and you are in conflict with some of that. Your nature, your heart, your soul knows that you are multi-dimensional and you struggle every day to become multi-dimensional.

LOVE YOURSELF

Let us speak to you of your own power. If you do not live in power, if you are spiritually impoverished and you feel one-dimensional, then learn to love yourself. This is the basis of life change... the willingness to see yourself differently. You will not see yourself differently in the Universe until you begin to love yourself. We do not necessarily speak of loving the personality or ego, we mean love who you are, love that aspect of God which you are. Honor yourself.

If you are at peace, then you have self-respect and you are in creativity. One who respects oneself begins to see their own uniqueness. Each of you is unique for you have the God force flowing through you. You are God and you are loved unconditionally, but you are also unique. Creativity and intuition allow you to express that uniqueness. What is it that you do to express yourself? What is it that you have always wanted to do? What is it that is within your heart? Know that, as you come to know your own inner strength, you will begin to connect with your own individuality and uniqueness.

Self-empowerment is generated from your own uniqueness. Learn to see yourself as worthwhile in your thoughts, words, deeds and actions and learn to be worthwhile in what it is you want.

WORLD CHANGE

Peace, harmony, truth, light and love are those things that are coming to your planet and they are going to change the world you now live in. This is not to necessarily say that the world will be unrecognizable, but that you will recognize each other differently. We are speaking to you of recognizing the heart and soul of other beings for what they are, their spiritual beingness, their spiritual heart, their Godselfes. If you are light, energy and love, what more could you ask for on your planet than peace: peace in your heart, peace around you and peace within the soul.

LIGHT IS ENERGY

Our purpose is to help people restructure their energy so that it may grow more brightly, so that they may be more radiant, and so that they may be cleaner within and without. As they do so, as the magnet of the human body is cleansed, they will stop attracting negativity. A clean magnet, uplifted with bright light, will attract positivity.

A world generated by self-empowerment is a world that is generated by light, by energy transmission and by a greater understanding that the light that is within each soul is the light of self-empowerment. Self-empowerment comes through energy, the transmission of energy and the reception of positive energy. Self-empowerment is scientific. What we are here to teach is not only brotherhood and peace, but self-liberation. This is what self-empowerment is, a liberation of your light and your soul.

When you become liberated, when you become empowered by your own light, then you are reaching upward to the Godhead and you can begin to match lights. This is what many successful people do... they tune in to that greater vibration of light, they are able to tune in and literally pour that light through themselves. However, many of these individuals that concentrate on financial prosperity only have adversity in their life and the reason is that their light dims, for this is not prosperity in its complete sense. Prosperity is financial success, but it is also power, health and well-being.

THE NEW GENERATION OF SOULS

What is occurring now is that the souls that are coming in, the infants, the tots, the little ones that are coming in, are truly Masters in Spirit. They are of an enormous body of upliftment and they are coming onto the planet to assist you and teach you to grow up spiritually. This is what self-empowerment involves, growing up spiritually... not just growing into human adulthood, but growing into that which is allowing your soul to work with light, energy and creativity. It is using your intuition, using your psychic ability, using all that God has given you to bless you as you walk through the day. These children are coming in to speak to you of peace, love and endearment.

The self-empowered generation that is coming, those souls that are coming onto this planet now and are such bright lights, we are trying to place with parents who will not diminish their light. These children are coming to teach the message that each soul must view themselves as a citizen of a globe, as a citizen of a galaxy. They will be uplifting and blessing themselves with that view and living as those of power, confidence and authority. That is, they know the spiritual self, how to plug into the spiritual light, to let peace be and not to meddle with it.

We speak to you of beginning to make social changes and of reality. Start with yourself. Start to cleanse your own life and start to uplift. Self-empowerment comes through seeing yourself through eyes of light. Look upon our message as a scientific message. We are not here to give you biblical talk, but to speak of scientific applications of energy. Positive and negative, cause and effect, these are scientific principles that are understood on the earth plane. Spiritual living is scientific in nature. When you bake a cake, do you leave out an ingredient or do you add something else that is not called for? Would you put in an extra egg, would you put in a substitute that you know would not work? Never.

Those of you who are lacking in a specific area of your life are applying these science principles only some of the time. Those of you who are generated in power, in health and in happiness are applying these principles more of the time, that is to say, with the understanding that you live your daily life consistently. When you are plagued with fears, doubts, jealousy and unhappiness, you are applying the law of cause and effect in a detrimental way. The law of cause and effect comes back to you. If you are putting out negative energy, then it will draw negative energy back to you.

We are here to talk to you about a world that lives in light. The planet itself will be surrounded by love and light and this is what these little tots are coming in to teach you... about unconditional love. Some of these entities are great Masters. Many of these entities have studied under the tutelage of these Masters and many of these entities were, as some of you already know, Lemurians of very, very high evolvment. These little souls are coming to save the world. They are coming with the pattern of The Christ Consciousness and The Buddha Consciousness, and are directed from the Godhead. Many of these souls are directed deeply from within and their light shines very brightly.

You say, "How does that affect what is happening?" Learn from those children. Learn their grace, their ways, and know that what has happened to many entities on the earth plane is that they have let adulthood stop their own self-empowerment. The world that we come to speak to you about is a world that will be empowered by God, empowered by clean light, empowered from within. Intuition is a great factor in life. When you shut down your intuition, stop that intuitive flow, or disallow a wild idea, you are stopping your childhood, you are into the arena of the unhappy adult and you are shutting down your light.

We speak to you of light in a very concrete sense. We are not speaking of some spiritual esoteric mystical light, we are talking about a light that is visible in other dimensions and that we directly see. We read your light in terms of density, color and purity. We are keepers of the classification of light and see where your light is in the ongoing range of growth.

Now, these new souls are one of two things... they are either very bright in their light or they are very dark. As the progression of incarnations takes place, quite often the light changes from incarnation to incarnation... a soul who has been in a light space will come into darkness and then revolve back into quite a light space again.

Aspects of fear, jealousy, doubt and self concern are those aspects that are not just part of a particular personality, they may well be part of a total spiritual way of looking at things. If you have this negative way of looking at things, if you are concerned about tomorrow and do not live in the moment, then know that you are working from spiritual attitudes that have been with you for some time and that the moments that you have experienced happiness have also been with you for some time.

The greater scheme of things is that very often your lights vary from incarnation to incarnation. There is a loop, then there is usually a period of stability where a person will be in a substantial light for quite some time as the soul is able to carry on that function. Then the process starts again with the loop.

Those Masters, who come onto the earth plane and are lights to the world, have stopped this. They no longer jump from incarnation to incarnation, or from fear to doubt to peace to happiness. They are able to master the smoothness and continuity that is God. God is continuousness. God is eternity. God is All. So, as you experience these motives, know that you are taking away from your self-empowerment, diminishing your light, shutting down your intuition and that, indeed, you are creating darkness in the Universe.

YOU ARE LIGHT AND ENERGY

The world of the future is a world that is generated by connecting your lights. If your life is not going forward and is out of harmony, then you are not connecting. To understand that you are light, energy, frequency and vibration is to teach you a new concept of yourself. For nothing is concrete. All things are fluid and all events are flowing through you. The circle of eternity flows through you, moment by moment. There is no beginning and there is no end. So, all of this continuously flows through you, and is for your use.

As you meditate upon the element of peace in your life, as you center and focus yourself, you plug in your energy to universal light. You are, in other words, activating your own divinity. You are activating your self empowerment and the resources that you have been given. Without the knowledge of cause and effect, without viewing personal color and without understanding your inner core self, your life is often experienced as inharmonious.

What we also wish to stress is that God is very often not experienced fully in the life. This is truly the life of the future, experiencing God every day through understanding that you are never separated from what is holy in yourself. You are never separated from Spirit, divinity or God. That light is always flowing through you.

Love, beauty, peace and harmony are always flowing through you and this is what is to come in the future... understanding your own choices. This is what we are speaking to you of now, the opportunity to make choices, the opportunity to focus in your life and to come to terms with yourself. For what is the nature of the Universe, but love... love of God, love of the divinity of yourself, brotherhood and peace?

THE WORLD OF TOMORROW

The world of tomorrow will bring you an environment that is peaceful, that is spiritual in its understanding of life and that allows grace and balance to flow purposefully from one to the other. As this occurs, you will find that your relationships, friendships, marriages and relationships with children will include right action and purposeful living, coupled with understanding your own uniqueness. You will find the world of tomorrow is not only a world of light, but it is a world of free expression and uplifted consciousness.

At this juncture in history, it is possible for humankind to uplift the general consciousness and greatly benefit the planet... and the responsibility lies with you. It is your responsibility to live your lives appropriately, to live your lives harmoniously and peacefully.

How you live today is very much how your next incarnations will be because of the law of cause and effect. The way of the Universe is order, harmony and light. Know that you are not born in sin. Know that, as light and energy are pure, so are you. Project purity and love for yourself and know that you can have no higher purpose in a given incarnation.

The act of cleaning up your thoughts, actions, words, deeds and your light benefits you while you are here. It benefits you in your life now and will benefit you in your future incarnations. Indeed, you will benefit those generations to come.

The spiritual world of tomorrow knows truth, knows itself and knows God. This is the world of tomorrow... the world that was before man stepped away from God. That is to say, the world that employs right action, right deeds and right thinking. We have come to you to remind you of who you are. Our purpose is to hold up a mirror for you. When you look in the mirror, see the truth, see your heart and your soul. See that you are eternal and that what you want to project with all your heart is harmony and peace, so that harmony and peace flow forward with continuity. The world of tomorrow is a world in which you would want to be reincarnated. It is a world in which you would want your children to grow up and one in which you would want to participate with joy.

Begin to create that world today. Begin to create that world by uplifting your consciousness and to be in charge of yourselves. Do not feel that you are batted about by fate and destiny, rather, understand that destiny is a man-made concept. The reality is that you have freedom and that YOU are in charge. Understand that you are in charge with purpose, with intent, with goals, with truth and creativity. Employ these concepts scientifically, with knowledge and joy and understand that peace is a ripple effect. It is as if you cast your stone upon the waters and you see that effect go out. If you are at peace, you empower yourself and others.

GENERATING SELF-EMPOWERMENT IS WHAT YOU HAVE COME TO DO.

and again,

GENERATING SELF-EMPOWERMENT IS WHAT YOU HAVE COME TO DO.

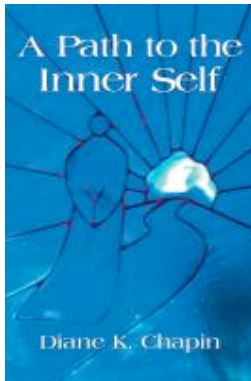

Generating self-empowerment is the task of every soul on this planet. As this is accomplished, you will automatically be connecting your lights, letting your lights be connected with other lights and uplifting the planet. As this is done, all will walk in health. That is not to say there will be perfection on the earth, but it is to say that the degree of experience on a daily basis will be greatly improved. The life situation in many countries will begin to improve as the light in their life attunes to a higher self, an understanding that they are an aspect of God.

We recognize that this is a long process. We are not here to beg you to ignore the earth plane, but we are here to implore you to live by right action. We ask you to uplift your consciousness, to know that you are light, know that you are loved and to express those aspects of yourself that you would be judged by. You want to be known by your light, by your connectedness, by your creativity, and that you live your life as an uplifted entity on the earth. You want to be judged by your own uniqueness of spirit.

Our message is one of peace and love. We are here to guide you, to bless you, to benefit you and to tell you, more than anything, that you are loved unconditionally. If you do not employ these tools and concepts, it does not mean that you will not be loved. It only means that we will come to you again to remind you of who you are, that you are light and an aspect of God.

So, receive our message in peace and good will. Know that you are loved unconditionally. We offer you our blessings and we wish you well through this endeavor as you grow into your own conscious upliftment, your own right action, and into the upliftment of your heart and soul. As you do these things, you will find your heart sings to you. That is the voice of God singing to you, that you are in line with the Universe and that what is rightful for you will come to you.

In the next chapter we are going to give you several techniques you can use to help yourself become more self empowered on a daily basis. We understand that some techniques will be more helpful than others to different people and so we have included a variety of things you can do. Read on, then, with our blessings.

Major topics include: spiritual vision, self-illumination, understanding yourself, mastership, Earth in transition, self empowerment techniques, and opening the vortex to access Universal Energy. "Earth has uplifted enormously over these last few years and we are encouraged by all that we see. The consciousness of humankind is evolving and unfolding to a point where the connecting link between individuals extends to the realization of human values that must change and are changing."
