FOREWORD

Seminaries and the “glorified superstitions” and the “common misreading’s” appear to be the central issue in the current falling away (Galatians 5: 4 stated clearly by Paul “fallen away from grace”). Dr. Bart D. Ehrman, whether he, or those professors in seminaries, like it or not, as result of the confusion they have authored, is a product of alleged higher education, in seminary, and he has fallen away. In an interview the author read Ehrman say, among other things, ‘the scripture is supposed to tell us what we are supposed to do’ and this is a basic and fundamental error. The scriptures of the New Testament do not so much tell us what we are to do as much as what we are to be, becoming new creatures in Christ by the Spirit of truth. The words that Jesus spoke, he spoke exclusively to Jews in Judah where, the Law of Moses was the law of the nation. (Romans 15: 8 ...plain English) Jesus fulfilling that law put an end to it as the means of pleasing God or not, toward salvation, as he also says in plain English (Matthew 5: 19), Jesus providing redemption, the forgiveness of sins, there satisfying God’s justice by the cross. Law of Moses is set aside for Gentiles, with a few exceptions, as stated in simple English at Acts 15 in the letter to Antioch penned by James, as “seemed good to the Holy Spirit.”

The common misreading and objection to this statement, without reading the scripture suggested, goes something like this, “No. Jesus said not a jot or tittle shall disappear from the law.” Let’s take special notice here we have stopped, reading, not only short of the end of the sentence but also removed the sentence from the paragraph and context in which it lays in scripture. In Matthew 5: 19 Jesus as recorded by Matthew, likely an educated man, as a Roman tax collector, reported what Jesus said:

“Whosoever therefore shall break one of the least of these commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.” (KJV).

Here, for clarification, the same passage from a modern English translation

“Therefore anyone who sets aside one of the least of these commandments and teaches others accordingly will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.” (NIV)

Obedient and disobedient are where? Jesus says, “in the kingdom of heaven.” What commandments accomplish, is fundamentally changed, by Jesus, for the Jews here. Gentiles have never been subject to Mosaic Law of Israel.

Our world is filled with those still standing on the 10 Commandments of Moses, indicting others, never accusing themselves, in their errant belief, apparently, that Jesus and the apostles re preached Moses and God sent his Son to die for the new (2,000 years old) folk religion of Jesus and the 10 Commandments. “No gospel at all” per Paul in Galatians 1:7, in his first epistle. (See: Matthew 11: 28-30) Some people irrationally believe they actually please God by their behavior, which brand of righteousness Isaiah called dirty rags (a reference to a woman’s monthly event) and or other people believe that he is impressed with their trying to please God by their own behavior, where Paul called his perfect legalistic adherence to law, “garbage”, when compared to knowing Christ Jesus. The Father is impressed only with what Jesus accomplished and those who place 100% faith in his mercy and grace there by that faith, receiving God’s gift of his Spirit of truth, to become his own workmanship bearing the fruit of the good deeds, he intends and pre-ordained. Ephesians 2: 8-10:

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God; Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.”
(KJV)

So we find Paul instructing, just as Jesus taught and Jeremiah had prophesied (Jeremiah 31: 31-34) it is no longer a matter of your doing; rather of being. Becoming God's workmanship, which, as James pointed out is a matter of submitting to the Lord, resisting evil, and Jesus explaining the Spirit of truth, he sends, the means of bringing the things belonging to Christ to this becoming and being the workmanship of God to his eternal praise and glory.

The confusion comes from fundamentalist reading and spewing forth, for doing, of individual verses removed from context as demonstrated in the massive error created by reading Matthew 5: 18 in isolation from Matthew 5: 19. Authentic authority is the great question to confirm, does Jesus possess it, the world asks? And after all they have a right to know. The answer is yes. Did the apostle witnesses write it down correctly (yes) and did the scribes alter it beyond understanding (no)? The answer is Yes and No, respectively on these counts. Mr. Dr. Bart Ehrman, perhaps genuinely, perhaps not, has investigated Greek and Hebrew ending in his specialization on Textual Criticism yet claiming it more objective than it truly can be for his altered purpose, to "create doubt as to the authenticity of the New Testament", now having confused himself into agnosticism from his beginnings as a fundamentalist. He is a shipwreck of faith and a resulting shipwreck of faith for those uneducated in scripture and the intricate interweaving from God therein and his (Ehrman's) claims concerning the origin of the Bible. God speaks for himself as the originator/author of the books of the Old and New Testaments.

Sir Isaac Newton, as this author, also, read Isaiah 46: 8-13:

“Remember this, and shew yourselves men; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God and there is none like me, Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: Calling a ravenous bird from the east; the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Harken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness: I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.” (KJV)

The author first read it in the modern version and while many claim the KJV as the only accurate and God, “authorized version”, in translation from Greek, Aramaic and Hebrew into English, this is among the “glorified superstitions” of the Seminarilly Confused, in their dogma and in their dogmatic offspring. In English from Hebrew:

“Remember this, keep it in mind, take it to heart you rebels. Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God there is no other; I am God there is none like me. I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say ‘My purpose will stand and I will do all that I please.’ From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far-off land, a man to fulfill my purpose. What I have said, that will I bring about; what I have planned, that will I do. Listen to me you stubborn-hearted, you who are now far from righteousness. I will bring my righteousness near, it is not far away; and my salvation will not be delayed. I will grant salvation to Zion, my splendor to Israel.” (NIV)

Isaac Newton, further read in Daniel the following, told to Daniel by the angel, the words of God, here for brevity presented in the modern English Daniel 12: 3, 4:

“Those who are wise will shine like the stars like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. But you, Daniel, roll up and seal the words of the scroll until the time of the end. Many will go here and there to increase knowledge.” (NIV)

Isaac Newton, who also tried to solve the math of the Bible, unable from his seat in history. Newton, began a series of Calculations and proofs, to describe motion deriving the calculus from what he observed building on top of the work of others previously, in math. Has there been in recent centuries an increase in knowledge, since Newton gave the world the mathematics of Physics and engineering? Yes there has. Daniel was told to seal the scrolls until the time of the end? As time has rolled on, further prophetic fulfillments might reveal the unsealing of the scrolls? These things are for the wise to understand, in the time of the end. Our Time! Daniel 12: 9, 10:

“He replied, “Go your way, Daniel, because the words are rolled up and sealed until the time of the end. Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.” (NIV)

And Newton read, again the angel speaking to Daniel, for the wise, not the wicked in the time of the end, in Daniel 12: 11-13:

“From the time that the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of 1, 335 days. As for you, go your way till the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance.” (NIV)

Isaac Newton, long before this author, discerned as the author did, independently, long after Newton’s time there is a word problem stated here, concerning 1,290 days and 1,335 days, by the angel of the Lord to Daniel and as God boasts in Isaiah 46: 8-13 he has told history in advance and left clues for the wise to understand and reveal for his glory at the end of days. The author is glad he did not waste his time in seminaries reading faulty commentaries (in place of the Spirit of truth) the author boldly reveals what the Spirit has revealed to him in obedience to what the Scripture instructs.

This book is the author's second book and is more finely focused on the very simple word problems others have solved and which he has partially, compiled, after investigating, as an engineer knowing the math of aircraft, and tried to give credit to those who first solved them. His first book is called "Misquoting Logic What Bart Ehrman Forgot to Tell You About The Coming Apocalypse And Your Place In It." By Chris Queen. The Seminarilly Confused, have proven to be much more confused (hard headed) than the author originally thought. Clearly most of them cannot be counted, yet, among the wise who understand the Lord God of Israel has boasted in advance of these revelations and wants them revealed for his glory, to preserve faith and to further vindicate his holiness in revealing himself even to skeptics, who sincerely seek the truth. Isaac Newton was successful in proving the calendar in scripture was a thirty day calendar (Encyclopedia Britannica 6th Edition) but from his earlier position in history was unable to solve or reveal solutions he sought yet clearly understood were there.

The Seminary is designed to create powerful orators to convince you by much talk that Jesus is the Lord. Further, they wish to create those who can argue more cleverly than the Ehrman's of the world to stump them, embarrassing them to silence. Thereby convincing the audience that Jesus is Lord, by their many words. FAT CHANCE! Clever argument is not the gift of the Spirit. Mr. Dr. Bart Ehrman has sold 20,000,000 books convincing many, in his error, of his error, with little reasonable or effective refuting from the Seminarilly confused, Ehrman convincing many of the uneducated in scripture, the world, the scriptures are not inspired and also that Jesus was merely a failed apocalyptic prophet wrongly exalted to the position of God the Son by scribes. As Paul said, "The gospel is not a matter of words but of power."

The power to put men on the moon began with the “7.6 Million pounds of thrust”, the author’s father intimately involved, to carry the “6.2 Million pounds (including fuel weight)” of the Saturn V from zero to 6,000 mph in 2 1/2 minutes, forcing 15 tons of kerosene and liquid oxygen per second into the five F 1 engines, “expending enough energy to light New York City for 75 minutes” in that 2 ½ minutes (Popular Mechanics/2003) to allow stages two and three to carry the rest of the small 361 ft. tall skyscraper into Earth’s orbit. Then proceed at 25,000 miles per hour, 240,000 plus miles to the moon, accomplish landing, then lift off from the moon and return the 240,000 plus miles to splashdown, film documenting the entire trip. Nearly every bit of the knowledge required involved Calculus (dynamic math of changing rates) and what Newton, thereby, told Space explorers extensively utilized, 300 years after his time, the beginnings of what was necessary to develop the required means to leave the earth and attain the surface another astral body.

This book reveals the word problems of God in simple terms and tells Bart Ehrman what Sir Isaac Newton tried to tell him. The author is amazed and humbled to be involved in fulfillment of prophesy. Lord to your glory! Shining like the stars forever and ever! Chris Queen

CHAPTER FIVE

THE REST OF THE STORY

With zero intention of debating any of these skeptics, atheists, agnostics, magnificently intelligent scientists (want a shot at the title?), nor any mother's son, the author has allowed the Lord of Creation to speak for himself and merely followed the word problems of Scripture to their solutions. Giving credit to those who solved them before him, (correcting a couple of them) merely putting the numbers in the equations the scriptures lay out. The Lord's words and his math speak for themselves adequately and completely.

Now, from here forward, with a clear view of exactly who wrote the Bible, God, with Bart Ehrman, guilty of representing it as otherwise for financial gain is a modern Balaam cursing the Lord and his people, and this author merely the Talking Donkey. Chris Queen (BSME) Talking Donkey, Most Successful Pro se Legal Counsel in United States History (10 Legal Victories Against Professional Lawyers), a pretty Good Papa and a grateful unworthy servant of the Most High through his Crucified and Risen Son Jesus, Messiah, taken up and who sent the Holy Spirit, Spirit of truth to guide us into the whole truth, who does not speak on his own but speaks what Jesus speaks to his servants. A fool for Christ. Man, what a resume.' Praise your name Lord.

Faith. Ephesians 2: 8-10:

“For it is by grace that you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— 9 not by works, so that no one can boast. 10 For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.” (NIV)

The entire rest of the Bible cannot be bent to read any claim it is anything other than God's gift, through faith in Jesus. Nor that we perform works aside from being God's workmanship being required somehow to DO SALVATION for him. It is not of works and those who do boast have usually directly or through seminaries been confused and Dr. Bart Ehrman, also is a product of the seminary confusions and seminaries as we see these seminaries, author confusion. We find thus far, none from seminaries who understand the dire need and none among the wise the angel spoke about to Daniel. I Corinthians 14: 33:

“For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.” (NIV)

The math of God objectively proves Dr. Ehrman is in error. No debate will be entertained. That is all I have to say here.
