

This book exonerates a notion pushing the degrees of what poetry defines. It is clear in its aspect, and bold with its agenda. Never downsizing truth, but speaking to all stepping on many toes. Not to oppress and point fingers, but to liberate words and topics people deem not in the light.

Earnest Blessed Prayer

*Thank you Lord for your guiding hand that protects me all through the day
Not knowing where I go or where I sleep unto your spirit help me obey
I love you lord but don't know how to yield
Please with your grace teach me how
To come out of sin as in truth I build
With an unworthy demeanor I bow
And close my eyes while upon you I think
Many tears come flow from my hurt
Of your blessed comfort what have I to think
God considers me and I am dirt...*

More To Know

Poetically spoke as rap not with a song or music to hear

With a purpose to come forth of my goal entrap

And bring to light's vision the form of a true tear

Made right before your eyes is a destiny set

Where words lift and come to rise equal on all levels met

To claim you know me all cut with lies

Everyone I deal with is in disguise

Faces are the many changes of approach

To this life a game and you are the coach

Dressed in all my sighted clothes you can define

Hate love or stay out of mine

Be a friend get acquainted and come now and dine

Where peace and harmony mix so much in line

And truth and grace stick right here to find...
